Second Round of Junior Legion Tourney Postponed

Threatening weather in mid-afternoon caused the postponement of Tuesday evening's semi-final round of games in the American Legion junior baseball sub-district tournament being played on the fairgrounds diamond in Thief River Falls. The games have been rescheduled for this evening, Wednesday, with Middle River meeting Roseau at 6 p. m., and East Grand Forks playing Thief River Falls at 8:30 p. m., weather permitting.

In tournament first-round play on Monday, Middle River defeated Warroad, 16 to 2; Roseau defeated Stephen, 4 to 0; East Grand Forkks edged out Crookston, 3 to 2; and Thief River Falls side-lined Warren, 11 to 7.

In the opener, coach Jerry Snyder's Middle River squad, rated as the pre-tournament favorite, scored a lop-sided 16 to 2 win over Warroad, with the game being called at the end of the fifth inning. Rich Engelstad, with three hits and a walk in four trips to the plate, led the heavy-hitting Middle River club in its attack on Warroad's lefty Mike Rose and reliever George Ganyo.

Righthander Gary Brandt turned in a nifty one-hit shutout as coach Ray Kavanagh's Roseau juniors defeated the Stephen juniors, 4 to 0. Roseau, on singles by Bryan Grand and Lynn Larson, and a double by Brandt, tallied a pair of runs in the third inning; and then added a pair of insurance runs in the sixth inning on singles by Brian Pelowski and Jim Toll, and a double by Grand. The lone hit collected by Stephen was a fourth-inning single by Mark Rasmussen.

East Grand Forks, the defending Ninth District champions, edged out Crookston, 3 to 2, by scoring the tie-breaking run in the last half of the seventh inning. Crookston had knotted the game at 2-all in the sixth inning, but in the seventh pitcher Roger Schmidt nicked East Side's leadoff batter, John Neppel, with a pitch. Dwayne Ostlund, a southpaw swinger, poled a triple to left-center, scoring Neppel with the game-winning tally. Crookston bashed out 11 hits during the game, and Louie Lopez, who was called in for relief of starter Ken Wavra in the seventh inning, was credited with the win. East Grand Forks could get but four hits off Schmidt, but loose play by the Crookston defense (the Pirates committed seven errors) proved costly.

Coach Ralph Shay's Thief River Falls club had to put on a come-from-behind effort to defeat Warren, winning by an 11 to 7 score. John Aune, with four for four including a pair of triples, drove in four runs to lead the locals' 10-hit attack. Billy Poole rapped out three hits in four tries, and had three runs batted in. Lefty Pat Fischer was the winner, but the stocky hurler required relief from righthander Rick Jensen in the seventh inning when Warren scored a pair of runs and left the bases loaded. Jensen, in his one-inning stint, struck out a pair and forced out Dick Engelstad for the game-ending out.

And the Custom Motors, in scoring a two-bird win over the Bjorkman's Clothing, chalked up a "perfect" 125. For the Custom Motors, Arnie Johnson scored a 21-6, Walt Fischer a 23-4, Roy Landmann an 18-8, Alan Christensen a 23-2, and Steve Johnson a 21-7.

The league-leading Times managed only a tie 123 to 123, with Don Olson's Coast-to-Coast squad, but continue to hold a one-point lead in the league standings. For the printers, Bill Dahlquist had an 18-7, George Mostue a 19-7, Leif Erickson a 22-4, Lewie Helfner a 21-6, and Bob Mattson a 23-0. The Ekeren Pharmacy squad was one bird shy of a "perfect" score, and gained on the Times, in defeating the Argyle State Bank, 124 to 118. In addition to Thyren's 25 straight, Stub Pahlen had a 23-3, Ted LaCoursiere scored a 24-6, Bob Ekeren a 21-7, and Floyd Ball a 21-3. For the losers, Del Lofstrom had a 19-7, Don Omdahl an 18-5, Dan Rawerts a 15-8, Dick Omdahl a 15-7, and Carlson a 25 straight.

Led by Schantzen's 25-straight, Wilson's had Roy Peterson with a 23-2, Wally Vagle with a 23-4, Stan Wilson with a 24-0, and Orv Feragen with a 21-3. Myrt Wilson of Mostue's had a "25", breaking 22 targets and having a handicap of three.

Sheriff Reports One-Car Mishap

A one-car accident happened 12 miles west of St. Hilaire on July 15, the sheriff's office reported today. A car owned by Robert Hirst Sr., rt. 5, Thief River Falls, was driven by Robert Hirst Jr., and carried two passengers—Jon and Rosalyn Hirst, his brother and sister.

Hirst lost control of the car, which ran into the ditch on the left-hand side of the road, rolled one and a half times, and came to rest with its wheels in the air. Jon Hirst received minor injuries and was in the Northwestern hospital overnight.

PUTTING for the benefit of the Times camera, Jody Gumlia of Crookston displays championship style after winning the women's invitational tourney held at the Thief River Golf club on Tuesday. Mrs. Gumlia carded an 87 in the championship flight to defeat Sue Prichard (center) who fired a 92 and Lu Ekeren who marked up a 95. A total of 74 golfers took part in the tournament. Although Mrs. Gumlia had trouble with her putts during actual play, she proved to be a pressure golfer, collecting a modest wager from Sue Prichard when this shot dropped neatly into the cup.

INJURED Tuesday afternoon in this car and combine accident on the south edge of the city were Joyce Bowman and Laurel Myhrer of St. Hilaire. Miss Bowman was the driver of the car which struck the rear of the combine operated by Kenneth Ortloff as both were traveling south on highway 32. Miss Bowman received facial injuries and Miss Myhrer suffered lacerations on both legs. The accident is under investigation by the Thief River Falls police department.

June Bank Debits Up 9 Per Cent in Thief River Falls

Bank debits in Thief River Falls during June were up nine per cent from the same month a year ago, according to statistics released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis. In dollars, Thief River Falls' bank debits volume during June was $9,138,000. In the same month of 1963 the total figure was $8,393,000. During the first six months of 1964, bank debits here amounted to $50,036,000, an increase of seven per cent over 1963's $46,805,000.

Bank debits represent the dollar volume of checks drawn by depositors against their bank accounts. Since most of these checks go to pay for local good and services, the debit figure is considered to be a fairly reliable indicator of general changes in business volume.

For a sample of Minnesota cities, the volume of bank debits for June increased 20 per cent from last year. Debits for the first six months of 1964 showed a 14 per cent increase from 1963.

Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson

Some Anxious Moments

The title-contending Vets had all the softball they care to handle for one evening when, on Tuesday at the Fairgrounds, they had to rally for three runs in the last half of the seventh inning to edge out the Hamm's Beer, 6 to 5.

The Hamm's, with Dale Wennberg poling a two-run home run over the left field fence in the first inning, held that 2 to 0 lead for a pair of innings. The Vets moved into a 3 to 2 lead in the fourth inning, but the Hamm's Beer, driving Wally Grovum off the mound; scored three runs in the fifth to take a 5 to 3 lead. And when DelRay Offerdahl set down the Vets in order in the last half of the sixth inning, it appeared that an upset was in the making.

But it was not to be. In the last half of the seventh, Offerdahl, pitching a bit too carefully, walked Don Engelstad, and followed with another walk to Harlie Drees. Les Olson sacrificed, catcher to first, moving the runners to third and second. Joey Poole was given an intentional walk, and the bases were loaded. Ike Ellingson bounced a ground ball down the third-base line, and when the ball hit runner Don Engelstad, Don was called out, and the bases remained clogged. Frank Harger then drove a ground ball past third base, and fast running by Drees, Poole and Ellingson acounted for the three runs and the game, 6 to 5.

And so the stage is set for Thursday evening's Bridgeman's vs. Vets game, and which will be played at the East Side diamond. The Bridgeman's are a crippled squad entering the game. Bob Carlson, who had been playing some of the finest softball of his career, has been sidelined for the season because of his recent injury. And the other day John Drury, another of Bridgeman's top-notch veterans, came up with a badly swollen knee, and the diagnosis is that he has fluid on the knee and will be out of action for some time. The two have been handling pitching duties for Dave Clough's team this year.

After the scare that the Vets received on Tuesday evening, manager Wally Grovum's club, (or is it Pat Poole's club?) will be tough to beat on Thursday.

Fish and Fishing

Vern and Bernice Nelson returned this week from a sucessful lake-trout fishing trip to Flin Flon's lake Athapuskow. Except for the high winds that swept the lake, making rough water and hard-trolling, the Nelsons reported having a fine time. Jerry Robbins of Glendive, Mont., a former radio announcer here, joined up with the Nelsons.

Vern said that they caught 29 trout, with wife Bernice turning in the best performance by catching 11 trout in one day, and they had their best success in trolling off the reefs off McKenzie Point. It was necessary to use a four-ounce sinker to get the spoon down into the layer of cold water where the trout were found (it's called the thermo-clime, I think) and the water temperature is down into the low forties.

They had remarkable success trolling a wafer-thin silver spoon, an it was on this lure that Mrs. Nelson made her eleven-in-one-day catch. Jerry, who is a devotee of the number five K-B spoon, finally had to ask Vern for the loan of this silver spoon. Mrs. Nelson had a heavy trout on her line at one time, but the deep swells on the lake, because of the persistent winds, made it difficult for Vern to manuever the 20-foot boat. And during the backlost of the boat in a heavy wave, the trout secured some slack line and snapped the 20-pound leader.

Vern explained that most of the "native" fishermen in the area were jig-fishing for the trout. They would use a two-ounce yellow jig, and a spinning outfit, and drift. These fishermen would make a cast of a hundred feet or more down-wind, and then let the jig settle o the bottom. Then, with a series of reefing motions, they would retrieve the jig, and most of the strikes would be made as the rod was lowered to the water prior to next up-and-over lift of the rod. But, explained Vern, while this method was taking trout it did not prove as successful as trolling with

Farm Safety Week Is Being Noted in State

"Safer American Families Everywhere" is the theme of National Farm Safety week, July 19-25. Reports from the National Safety council show 8,700 people killed by farm accidents in 1962. That's one farm death every hour. An additional 800,000 persons suffered disabling injuries in 1962 farm accidents.

Last year in Minnesota, farm accidents caused 132 deaths. Machinery acounted for one-third of these deaths, according to the Minnesota department of health.

These statistics paint a grim picutre, and it becomes more sobering when you add the grief, pain and loneliness caused by these accidents.

Garnett Hall, director of the safety division of the Minnesota highway department, says accidents can be prevented. He compares 1962 and 1963 accident figures as proof.

In 1962, Minnesota tractor and other farm equipment accidents accounted for five fatalities and 39 personal injuries. One year later, 190 similar accidents caused 20 fatalities and 72 personal injuries.

"It seems incredible," says Hall, "that in one year the total accidents could more than double and the fatalities increase by 300 per cent."

Most of the tractor accidents—about 70 per cent—were due to driver error. Unsafe speed, unsafe turning movements, following too closely and failing to yield right of way are some of the common causes.

Unsafe equipment and lack of safety devices accounted for approximately 30 per cent. Improper lighting and mechanical failure were the biggest offenders. Hall says keeping mechanical equipment in good shape is a reuisite for safety. However, operating the equipment safely is still more important.

Other fatal accidents on the farm include drownings, firearms, falls, blows, animals, burns, electric, poisonings, lightning and suffocation.

According to 1962 data from the U. S. department of health, the age group between 10 to 19 years is most susceptible to farm accidents. The safest years are between 25 to 29 years of age.

Hall says every week should be Farm Safety week. Safety must become a major part of farm life. When farmers in Minnesota become convinced of this, says Hall, we will see a sharp drop in the accident toll on our farms.

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.

BY BERT MILLS
Washington Editor of "National Publisher"

There is a game some people are playing these days called "Playing Politician." It is very simple and can be enjoyed by all those who follow national affairs, particularly those who do not like what they see and hear in Washington.

The game begins by posing this question: "Name one important thing Lyndon Johnson has done since becoming President that was not politically motivated." Of course, the game is no fun if all the players are either pro or anti-Johnson.

For a really spirited game, you need six people, all of whom follow the Washington news carefully. Three should call themselves Democrats, two should be professed Republicans, and one an alleged Independent. This is approximately the same ratio as the national population of voters.

For purposes of identification, designate the Independent as acting chairman and let him ask question one. There will be no need for another chairman or further questions. Whatever the allotted time for the game, it will all be consumed on question one. A time limit for each player is essential.

A Mythical Game

Come play with me a mythical game. Democrat A, a "New Dealer" from Texas, is accorded the first chance to demolish the charge in the loaded question one. Mr. A knows his LBJ and starts on a lofty plane, saying that the Johnson program is aimed at a "Great Society", an America at peace, without poverty, with jobs for all, without prejudice.

Democrate A gets a bit wound up on his subject and before he can get far along on his list of Johnson virtues, it is time for Republican A, a "Main Liner" from Philadelphia, to speak his piece. Naturally his remarks take the form of a rebuttal of what his counterpart has been saying.

In the first place, he argues, Republicans are also for a better world, peace everlasting, a break for the downtrodden and an end to racial strife. For confirmation, consult the G. O. P. platform. In the second place, the Democratic spokesman has eluded the question, which dealt with political motivation.

Republican A is about to pin Democrat A to the wall on that point when his time runs out and it is the turn of Democrat B, a labor union official from Detroit. Naturally, his views are labor-oriented and he is forced to admit that union leaders have had to swallow hard to accept Johnson.

After all, LBJ voted to override the Presidential veto of the hated Taft-Hartley Act as a Senator. As President, he has said "no" to the union demand for a law to limit the work week to 35 hours, without loss in pay.

When Democrat B pauses for breath, the chairman throws in a gentle reminder that the subject is motivation—why LBJ does what he does. Democrat B rechecks his list and is forced to concede that even the anti-labor positions have been the politically wise thing to do.

G. O. P. Sharpshooter Scores

Republican B, a businessman from Omaha, is the next player and he's a real sharpshooter, so much so that the other contestants suspect he invented the game so he could shine. The tax cut, he argues, had a double political motive—to please all 60 million taxpayers and especially businessmen, and to give prosperity an artificial stimulus to insure good times would prevail on election day.

The civil rights bill was an obvious bid for the Negro vote, Republican B contends, the pay boost for Congressmen and all government employees was a scheme to woo legislators and civil servants, and the poverty program an election year gimmick to insure that the poor vote Democratic.

Time runs out on Republican B and it becomes the turn of Democrat C, a farmer from Montana. The wheat bill did not please him, he cannot understand why the President continues to allow beef imports to undermine the domestic market and in short he feels the entire Johnson farm policy is crazy.

But what about political motivation, asks Mr. Independent, thinking he may have a winner in Democrat C. Surely LBJ's unpopular farm actions had to be non-political. But no, insists Democrat C, the President only did what was politically expedient and feasible, even if many farmers objected.

Five of the six players have had their say. There remains only the chairman, Mr. Independent. He is a middle-of-the-roader and he intends to stay that way. His heart is not in the game, after hearing the fumbling efforts of the other contestants.

Like the boxing referee who must determine the outcome of a double knockout, he declares the game "no contest" and decides maybe he had better not vote this year.

CANINES with a liberal education will be part of the variety program to be presented Saturday evening at the Pennington County fair. Gordon's Circus Dogs is an act promised to be a treat for grownups as well as children attending the grandstand program.

Final Admission Date Set at BSC

August 14 is the final day to apply for admission to Bemidji state college for fall quarter, according to E. J. Aalberts, college registrar.

This deadline for admission applications was approved by the faculty senate and the Minnesota state college board last winter and applies to all resident and non-resident students alike.

Reason for the deadline is to insure all applicants that there will be room for them when they arrive and that there will be ample faculty. This is the first year that the rule is in effect.

"The law should be loved a little because it is felt to be just; feared a little because it is severe; hated a little because it is to a certain degree out of sympathy with the prevalent temper of the day; and respected because it is felt to be a necessity."

And Now the Vote

Carried in Monday's issue of the Times was an official notice of school election for the proposed consolidation of the Grygla, Gatzke and Skime school districts. Residents of these districts, and of several neighboring districts, have been worked up for some time in regard to the proposed consolidation and further proposals for a high school at Grygla.

All of these people have a right to be concerned, although the real issues have been confused and clouded by the one-sided appeals presented by both sides in the controversy. It is common practice to expound the good features and ignore the bad in a person's own beliefs, and to reverse the procedure when commenting on the opposing views of others.

We can sympathize with all concerned in the proposal. Having ridden a school bus for a considerable distance in our high school days, we know the inconvenience and hardships of long-distance bus travel to and from school. In this situation, which certainly exists for a number of residents of districts not having high schools in their districts, we recognize the hardships. A high school closer to home would be of great advantage.

In districts which have low valuations and are struggling along to maintain existing high schools (such as Middle River and Goodridge), we can also appreciate the concern over losing tuition students from the non-high school districts. If these existing schools are to be maintained, with a loss of a considerable number of students, the residents are bound to suffer from increased costs per family and a decrease in number and quality of subjects offered and school personnel.

A high school, however, is beyond the current question at hand. That question, whether or not to consolidate the three districts, will be voted upon from 5 to 10 p. m. on Tuesday, July 28, at the school buildings in Grygla, Gatzke and Skime. Passage of the consolidation proposal must preclude any action that can be taken on a high school at Grygla.

We can suggest only that the residents involved become fully informed on the proposal, what it will mean to them individually in taxes and what an enlarged district would have to offer as an inducement for change. Thus informed, the residents of the district will vote July 28 in a manner that will insure for them the situation which is best for the district and area.

The Battlefront

While the Economic Opportunity Act has some points worth consideration, it does not provide enough emphasis in the areas where the real problem lies. The act is the legislation which forms the battle plan for President Johnson's war on poverty. This commentary from the Portland Oregonian is worthy of public consideration in our area:

"A case can be made. . .for dramatization of a national 'war on poverty'. But that war will be won, if it is won, in the communities of America, through the initiative of state and local governments and private enterprises — through a strengthening of local school systems and local industry and opening of job and training opportunities to all races.

"Federal grants and incentives can help but not if they are in the direction of doling out to the 'peasantry' or of resurrecting emergency relief measures of an earlier decade irrelevant to the 1960's. There is too much of this latter direction in the Economic Opportunity program, as it now stands; therein lies its flavor of politics."

It would appear that the war on poverty being directed from Washington must still be won on the battlefronts at home. And what better place to get things done in the most orderly and efficient manner? Throughout the nation's history the force of equal opportunity and individual enterprise has made this country the envy of the rest of the world.

In the Name of Justice

Reports of recent riots in the negro sections of New York City seem far removed from us here in Northwestern Minnesota—indeed, they do not seem indicative of our nation at all. It would appear that in most cases the riots are stirred up as a cover for looting which otherwise would call attention to the violators as common thieves.

The riots have been triggered by persons using the name of justice as an excuse. The most recent was attributed to the fatal shooting of a knife-wielding negro boy by an off-duty policeman. Had the incident happened several years ago, or had the youth who was killed been white or one of the other minority race members in New York, the incident would not have attracted such wide attention.

Recent emphasis on civil rights, the affinity for national television hook-ups and wire services for exploiting racial strife, communist-inspired plots to internally divide our nation and the would-be tin general attitude of zealous negroes and sympathizers have combined to create the chaos.

Communist workers, using the negroes in their plans for overthrow of the United States, have been singularly successful. They have ignited the fires of hate over which they warm their bloody hands. They are scattering burning brands from this fire to whatever parts of the nation have fuel to ignite, and they are fanning the fires to make them burn brighter.

For giving them this opportunity we must blame ourselves, but we must not permit our nation to fall by default. On local and state levels we must do our utmost to prevent outbreaks of violence and unrest such as those which have flared in larger cities. The racial problem our nation faces is not unique in the world today. The movement behind it, the undercurrent which sweeps insidiously beneath the troubled surface, is our major danger. This is the eventual end which we must guard against, lest we be caught unaware, pulled under and swept away.

Start Early—Be Informed

When the political furor reaches its highest point just prior to the November general election, it should be almost anti-climactic. By that time most voters should already know who their choices are, mainly because they should have compared the candidates and philosophies and made their decisions.

America needs informed voters—men and women who study the issues and the positions of the candidates, all the way from town and country to Capital Hill and the White House. An informed public with power of the ballot box is difficult for a tainted politicism to sway with emotions, oratory or empty promises.

It should not be necessary to note the value of the vote of every individual. In the last Presidential election, however, with almost 69 million votes cast, the late President Kennedy had a margin of victory of less than 120,000 votes—and that figures out to less than one vote per precinct.

In the 1960 election less than two-thirds of the nation's eligible voters went to the polls. In the off-year election of 1962, less than half of the nation's voters cast ballots. Every vote is important in our democratic society — and every voter exercising the privilige should feel obligated to know something whereof he votes.

Side Line Observations

BY BILL DAHLQUIST

According to the Construction Bulletin, published in Minneapolis, contract awards in Minnesota and the two Dakotas rose 73 per cent in the first half of this year, compared to the January thru June total for 1963. This year's total was $555.9 million compared to last year's total of $321.3 million.

It is reasonable to assume that much of his construction can be attribued directly or indirectly to government at various levels, but most of it to the federal level by both direct spending an by loans and grants. All of which makes for campaign-year prosperity, but there is a growing concern thruout the country about the overbuilding of dwellings and apartments, financed by easy credit. According to Laurence O'Donnell, staff writer for the Wall Street Journal:

"Mortgage lenders are trying to prevent a record-shattering boom in apartment building from turning into a bust.

"For the past few years the lenders have been fueling the boom by making big loans easily available to apartment builders. Now, however, there are indications some of these builders are having trouble meeting their mortgage payments, or may have trouble soon.

"Many lenders are modifying their loan agreements to allow builders to defer repayments of principal until their newly built apartments fill up. Some also are beginning to tighten their standards for making new mortgage commitments, to keep high-risk loans off their books. Their actions are being taken with the approval —indeed, sometimes at the prodding — of the Federal Housing Administration, which has insured over $8 billion of the $35 billion now outstanding in first mortgage loans on U. S. apartments, and is trying to avoid any possibility of a wave of foreclosures.

"So some new apartment houses have had trouble paying their bills. "Several (building) contractors have had to go into bankruptcy during the last year because of slow payments from apartment house sponsors," says H. Earl Fullilove, chairman of New York's Building Trades Employers Association. And C. Franklin Daniels, director of multi-family housing for the FHA, says owners of 88 apartment projects were in default on their FHA-insured mortgages, too, at the end of 1963. That was up from 63 FHA apartment-house mortgages in default a year earlier and more than twice the 42 mortgages in default five years before."

And what is true for apartments is also true for dwellings. According to another Wall Street Journal survey in this field the FHA's Dallas office, serving 35 counties, acquired 643 foreclosed homes in the first five months of this year. In the Chicago area the FHA foreclosure rate on single family homes is up substantially over a year ago. A Sacramento loan company official states that multiple dwelling foreclosures are running about 50 per cent ahead of 1963. In Cleveland the rate is up about 25 per cent. And, comments the Journal:

"Lenders advance various reasons for the jump in foreclosures. Says one: "Most of them are caused by skips—people who are attracted by the low down payments They can live in the house without building up any equity, and when the time comes to repair it they find it cheaper to get a new house than to pay repair bills. So they walk out and leave it." Others attribute it to overbuilding in some areas.'

A visit to St. Paul a week weeks ago gave me an opportunity to see for myself the overbuilding that apparently is general thruout our country. A friend invited me to join him in a tour of the city, and St. Paul, being my first home town, I accepted the invitation readily. The volume of apartment construction that was under way was amazing. Then my friend drove slowly by some of the completed apartment buildings, some old and some new, and on all of them "vacancy" cards were displayed conspicuously. I came away convinced that the government should get out of the real estate business, among other things.

The building boom no doubt has contributed much to the campaign-year prosperity. But, obviously, we cannot continue to overbuild indefinitely without serious consequences and, more and more, reasonable people are becoming concerned about it. The sooner this concern becomes sufficiently widespread to force corrective action in Washington, the less painful will be the bust that inevitably follows every boom.

The Senate has approved the pay increase for federal employees, including a $7,500 increase for our members of Congress. Senators Humphrey and McCarthy voted in favor of the gift which will be extracted reluctantly from already over-taxed taxpayers. Incidentally, Senators Humphrey and McCarthy in effect pleaded the fifth amendment, along with Bobby Baker, in voting against an inquiry delving into their relations with Bobby Baker.

I hope the pay increase, along with extemely liberal expense allowances, will enable our two good senators, representing Hennepin and Ramsey counties, to get by financially during the next two By that time, maybe the taxpayers will be willing to give them another pay boost—or would it be better if the taxpayers decided it would be best for them and best for all of us if they went back to teaching school.

We now have a federal law on civil rights, a problem that, heretofore, has been handled by the states. The problem, obviously, has not been handled to the satisfaction of all. Whether or not it has been handled as well as it could have been handled is a matter of opinion. Up here in the far north we have had no race problem and probably are not qualified to pass judgement on those areas of the nation where they have had, and still have, a race problem.

In my youth I attended schools where some of my classmates were Negroes. There was no race problem. Then, a little older, I soldiered in the south, and had an opportunity to observe personally the southerners and their race problems. From my personal experience and observation, I must admit some doubts as to the wisdom of the step we have now taken, presumably in the interest of the descendants of the Africans who wrongfully were brought here against their will 200 years ago.

The Civil Rights law may be a step forward, thinking in terms of those whom the law was intended to help, but I doubt it. In the areas where the problems are serious, it may worsen their position for many decades rather than better it. Time alone, I believe, will solve this problem, and time is a slow mover.

St. Cloud VA Hospital Has Research Program

The Veterans Administration hospital at St. Cloud is one of 12 VA neuropsychiatric hospitals involved in a five-year research program now nearing completion.

Research workers at the St. Cloud VA hospital said the study indicates that one-third of the VA's 115,000 hospitalized veterans, the normally long-term mental patient classified as schizophrenic, can safely be returned to community life for considerable periods of time, and frequently on a permanent basis.

"The study, involving 1,319 patients, indicates that ex-patients of this type contribute fewer acts of violence, fewer felonies and fewer alcoholic cases to the police blotters of their communities than the average male," according to Dr. Charles Watson, psychiatric evaluation project coordinator.

The VA's waiting list for hospital beds is normally highest for mental patients, totaling 11,600 on March 31, 1964. Release of the patients, whenever possible, makes inroads into this backlog.

Dr. Watson said that the schizophrenic, who is generally characterized as one who has lost contact with reality, normally represents 75 per cent of those veterans occupying VA neuropsychiatric beds. All types of mental patients represent roughly half of those receiving hospitalization in VA's 168 hospitals.

More than 50 VA research psychologists, statisticians and medical personnel have contributed to the psychiatric evaluation project which included four large, four medium and four small installations. The St. Cloud VA hospital was one of the 12 selected also because of its geographical location.

Dr. Watson said that although nine out of ten of those patients included in the study were discharged during the five-year period, some 40 percent required additional treatment within one year and two-thirds required additional hospitalization within four years. Some have returned to full-time employment and to their families.

The full study will be released at the American Psychological association convention in Los Angeles September 4.

If you are planting container-grown plants, dig the hole slightly deeper than the container. Usually the plant is growing quite shallow in the container. After the hole is ready, remove the container and place the plant in the hole. Plants grown in metal containers may be more difficult to remove. In this case, place your hand on the soil and invert the container. The soil ball will loosen if you give the can a firm rap.

Faith's Challenge

There is something very special about a boy and his dog. The dog so obviously wants nothing more than to devote his life to his small master. He takes his boy on faith . . . and, inevitably, the boy lives up to it.

For faith creates a challenge. If someone believes something good of you, you find yourself eager to measure up to that standard.

God looks for the best in all of us. Regardless of what may have happened yesterday we are, today, welcome in His Church. He has faith in us. Should we have less than faith in Him?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Miss Aquacade Hopeful

Jackie Slusar Is Queen Candidate

Editor's Note: The following is the seventh in a series of interview feature stories with candidates for the Miss Aquacade title at the Miss America Preliminary pageant to be held Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Lincoln high school auditorium in Thief River Falls.

Since she was four years old, Jackie Slusar of Warren has been performing before audiences of various sizes in a wide number of places. This past year at Warren high school she was named the recipient of the Doris Brown music award, a plaque presented annually to the outstanding senior student in the field of music, a tribute to her long-time interest in the art.

Eighteen-year-old Jackie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Slusar, a 1964 graduate of Warren high school and plans to attend the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks this fall. She is 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighs 115 pounds, has brown hair and blue eyes and a 35-23-35 figure.

With her mother providing piano accompaniment, Jackie started singing in public at the tender age of four. Her appearances ranged from small local gatherings to a television performance and she participated in a number of talent shows. As if vocal music wasn't enough, Jackie started taking cornet lessons at the age of 10, progressed through beginner and junior high school bands and has played first chair cornet since her sophomore year.

When a junior she played the lead role of "Nellie" in the musical "South Pacific" and last year portrayed "Annie" in the high school production of "Oklahoma". She was one of the top 10 students scholastically, is president of the Boxville 4-H club and accompanied the winning talent act in the Marshall county 4-H share-the-fun festival this year.

When it comes to favorites in music, Jackie tends to favor her trumpet. She was a member of the trumpet trio winning a music contest at the school last year, attended Bemidji band camp last summer and placed third chair in the selected concert band. Her immediate ambitions, in addition to the Aquacade contest Saturday evening, are to gain a place in the UND band and to attend Interlochen Band camp in Michigan next summer. This summer she is giving piano lessons to a younger sister.

Jackie is active in young people's organizations at Our Savior's Lutheran church in Warren, enjoys bowling and lists her favorite outdoor chore as washing and waxing the family's cars. She has also taken part in speech contests, was a member of the high school Girls' Athletic association and was a cheerleader.

When she enrolls at UND this fall, she plans to major in mathematics and minor in music. Her talent number at the pageant will be a trumpet and vocal rendition of "Sugar Blues".

Jackie has two brothers, Jerry, 17 and Jon 14, and a sister, Jennifer 7.

Optometrists To Offer Pre-School Screening Tests

August 10 is "Vision Day" for Minnesota's pre-school children. Dr. Harold Sabre, Hopkins, chairman of the Minnesota Optometric association school-vision committee, recently announced that members of the association will give visual screening tests on that day as a public service. All children entering school for the first time are eligible.

Thief River Falls optometrists have been screening youngsters during June and July. Those who have not yet been screened are urged to make appointments immediately with any of the local optometrists.

Optometrists will conduct tests to determine if the child sees well at a distance and near; will determine if the child uses both eyes in co-ordination, and they will also check the general condition of the eyes. According to Dr. Sabre it is not enough for a child to have 20-20 vision. In fact it is possible for a child to be cross-eyed and still have 20-20 vision. A farsighted child may also see well at 20 feet but have to strain to see up close.

A screening is not a substitute for a complete examination but will determine if such an examination is necessary. There is no obligation.

Crop Varieties To Be Viewed at Prestebak Farm

Soybeans, sunflowers, oats, barley and wheat will be seen and discussed at a crop variety trial meeting to be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Ole and Robert Prestebak farm nine miles west of Grygla or 10½ miles north of Goodridge, along highway 219.

Martin Kasperson, Marshall county extension agent, will conduct the meeting. The demonstration is sponsored by the Marshall-Beltrami Soil Conservation district and the Marshall county extension office.

SKAAR BUYS ANGUS BULL

Leonard Skaar of Thief River Falls recently purchased an Aberdeen-Angus bull from Alfred Solem and Sons, also of Thief River Falls.

City Wins Award For Efforts in Pedestrian Safety

AAA Award Announced By State President: 30 Cities Recognized

Thief River Falls is one of 30 Minnesota cities which have won awards from the American Automobile association in recognition of their efforts to save pedestrian lives in traffic, according to an announcement by Dr. William G. Sauer, Rochester, president of the Minnesota AAA.

Top awards in the state went to Fairmont, Bemidji, Crookston and Robbinsdale.

Other cities honored are Detroit Lakes, Ely, Eveleth, Litchfield, Brainerd, Cloquet, Coon Rapids, Crystal, Fergus Falls, Fridley, Golden Valley, Hastings, Hutchingson, Little Falls, Mound, New Ulm, North Mankato, Pipestone, Rochester, St. Anthony, St. Louis Park, St. Peter, Virginia, Willmar and St. Cloud.

The pedestrian protection program in Minnesota is sponsored jointly by the Minnesota Safety council and the state AAA.

Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag congratulated mayors of the award-winning cities in a letter which stated, "Please accept my personal congratulations and convey them to all citizens and organizations whose cooperation has made this award possible. May I ask you and them for renewed efforts so that in future years your community will continue to be among the leaders in pedestrian accident prevention."

In announcing the Minnesota winners Dr. Sauer said, "This marks the 25th anniversary of AAA's pedestrian safety program which was established in 1939 after two years of preparatory work. Since that time pedestrian fatalities have dropped from 15,500 to 8,300 last year, a reduction of 46 per cent even though the population increased 50 per cent and motor vehicle travel jumped almost 200 per cent.

Goodridge Lions Plan Anniversary Event for Village

At the regular meeting of the Goodridge Lions club Wednesday evening, plans were discussed and committees appointed to put on a celebration for Goodridge's 50th anniversary. The Lions club, with Ernie Swanson as general chairman, will take care of the arrangements.

The date has been set for September 19 and 20. The railroad was built out to Goodridge in 1914 and most of the town was built that fall and winter, Swanson noted.

Lions Club Hears Report on State H. S. League Wed.

Thief River Falls Lion's club met Wednesday for the regular dinner meeting at the Elks club rooms. President Ralph Luhman called the meeting to order and the introduction of guests was held followed by committee reports by Jon Larson, Ormond Johnson and Fred Sorensen.

President Luhman then turned the meeting over to Wendel Olson, program chairman, who introduced Richard Edlund, Lincoln Senior high school principal, who spoke to the group on the Minnesota State High School league. Edlund told the group the purpose of the league and what its aims are. He pointed out that it was formed to provide equal rules throughout the state and protect schools from recruiting young athletes from one school to another. Edlund also said the league regulated other activities such as speech and music.

Edlund went on to explain that there were 490 public schools in the state that belong to the league and how this community was represented. He said the state was divided into 32 districts and there are 11 schools in District 31, of which this school system is a part. Each district is then combined with other districts to form regions.

Thief River Falls is in Region 8 which is comprised of Districts 29, 30, 31 and 32. Every region in turn elects a delegate to represent its schools on the board of control which is composed of 10 members. Purpose of this board is to see that the rules are carried out and obeyed. Edlund pointed out that the board of control does not make the rules. Many people believ this to be the case.

He went on the say that the rules governing the activities of the schools were made by the representative assembly, made up of 32 members, who meet twice a year. These assembly members are elected from each district. Any changes made in the rules concerning activitis are done by this assembly.

Edlund said that there are "pressure groups" trying to disband this system of regulation, so as to satisfy their many pet projects. The league does restrain high school athletics in some out-of-school events sponsored by organizations. The Minnesota State High School league has been operating now for 50 years, Edlund said, and he maintained that regardless of the criticism it is still the best method to control our activity programs.

Following Edlund's address a discussion period was held with several topics involved.

4-H IS FUN
4-H Project 8 MFM
SILVERTON 4-H C

DEPICTED graphically on a revolving base were projects of the Silverton 4-H club in this grand champion booth at the Pennington county fair. The booth captured the atmosphere of a carnival with its merry-go-round theme and showed fair-goers what kind and how many projects are carried by the club members.

15,000 Attend 63rd Annual County Fair

With excellent weather prevailing until rain washed out the final grandstand performance Sunday evening, the 63rd Annual Pennington County fair held its four-day run Thursday through Sunday. Entries were up in nearly all divisions, with the increase particularly noticeable in the livestock divisions. Total attendance was estimated at 15,000 people.

Again this year an increase was shown in the 4-H club program where an estimated 500 members showed a total of 1,555 exhibits and received a total of $2,200 in premium money. A number of champions are pictured in today's issue of the Times, and a complete listing will be published in the Wednesday edition.

According to Jon Metusalem, secretary of the Pennington County Fair Association, Inc., all revenue-producing portions of the fair were up from a year ago. The association's share of carnival proceeds were up by 50 per cent, Metusalem said, while grandstand admission and auto parking also showed revenue increases.

Total premium payments also increased from $3,909 last year to $4,150 this year. In the women's division the entries increased by more than 400 from a year ago. While grandstand attendance was up, the amount of money guarenteed to performers was also higher than last year, resulting in a probable loss on total grandstand programs for the four days. Sunday night's rain, which caused the Browning Family show to be curtailed, was part of the reason for the loss.

Directors of the fair association met Saturday evening and set the 1965 county fair dates for July 22, 23, 24 and 25—a four-day program of Thursday through Sunday, just as it was this year. The Jack Thompson carnvial was also given a contract to play at the fair next year.

Auto parking totaled about 700 cars on each of Friday and Saturday with somewhat fewer cars on Thursday and Sunday. Since the fair operates with a free gate, a total attendance figure can only be estimated. Further information, together with champions in the various divisions, will be published in the Wednesday edition.

Third Fire Hits Crookston; Arson Case Suspected

The third fire in Crookston in two days struck the Crookston Daily Times building and did extensive damage Saturday night. Police believe an arsonist is on the loose in the city and are hunting for the culprit.

Three fires started in the building—in the basement and on the second and third floors, according to Mrs. D. A. McKenzie, president and publisher of the Times. The third floor and the roof were destroyed, and the press room in the basement was extensively water-damaged.

A volunteer fireman who had been doing remodeling work first entered the building to rouse tenants of the apartments in the building. None of the 20 to 25 occupants was hurt.

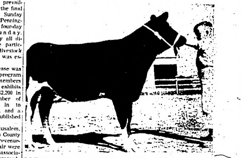
Mrs. McKenzie said the newspaper will set up offices in a vacant building in Crookston and will use the presses of the Warren Sheaf. The papers will be trucked into Crookston.

Pat Barry, Thief River Falls, an assistant state fire marshal, traveled to Crookston immediately after the fire was reported at 12:04 a. m. Sunday. He is also investigating the other recent fires in Crookston.

Five buildings were destroyed in a $150,000 blaze which struck the Crookston Milling Company Friday afternoon. That fire started at the top of a grain elevator where motors operate cleaning equipment.

Two fires, one discovered at 1 a. m. and the other at 7:30 p. m., damaged Jerry's Steak House on Saturday. About three months ago fire destroyed Salem's Corner, a bar and pizza cafe in Crookston.

The Crookston Fire department has six full-time employees, including Chief William Herbert. Its volunteer staff is about 30 men. The fire hall is across the street from the newspaper building.



WINNER of the grand champion dairy 4-H ribbon at the Pennington county fair was this registered Holstein heifer calf with the distinguished name of Daleford Smoky Elaine. The pink-and-white trimmed anniversary cake, in three-tier design, was ornamented with bells and the anniversary emblem in silver. UNDERWATER BLACKOUT

Q. Does deep breathing before an endurance underwater swim greatly increase the time a swimmer can remain submerged?

A. No. In fact, the results may be tragic. Underwater swimmers hyperventilate in an effort to increase the oxygen content of the blood and thus delay the time when the desire to breathe becomes overwhelming. However, the increase in arterial oxygen by hyperventilation is very small. Of greater importance is the fact that the submerged hyperventilated swimmer may lose consciousness without experiencing a great desire to breathe. As few as 15 deep breaths before an underwater swim can set the stage for a blackout . . . and possible disaster.

KITCHEN KARNIVAL

Features from the Kitchen of

MRS. J. P. ROSENGREN

A fresh supply of rhubarb can be yours throughout the summer if you keep picking the stalks before they reach maturity. Mrs. Rosengren's dessert recipe may give you an inspiration along that line.

The raw rhubarb is placed over an unbaked crust, a syrup poured over all, and the remaining portion of the crust crumbs sprinkled on the top. It is then baked, with delicious results. (There'll very likely be requests for "seconds.")

RHUBARB DESSERT

Combine well:
¾ cup quick oatmeal (uncooked)
½ cup butter
1 cup flour
1 cup brown sugar (less, if you prefer.)
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Use half of this mixture on the bottom of a 9 inch square pan, preferably one made of glass. Spread over this 4 cups washed, cut-up rhubarb. Over this layer, pour a syrup made as follows:

1 cup sugar
1 cup cold water
2 tablespoons corn starch (rounded)

Cook until clear, stirring to prevent lumps from forming. Add a teaspoonful of vanilla. Pour over the ingredients in the baking pan, cover with the remaining crumb mixture, and bake at 350 degrees for a half hour. Serve as is, hot or cold, or top with ice cream or half-and-half. It is best when eaten the same day that it is baked.

The Rosengrens are a retired couple, Mr. Rosengren having served with the Farmers Home Association of Pennington and Red Lake counties, retiring just this past spring. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rosengren are absorbed in gardening, mostly in the growing of flowers. With their three sons grown and away from home, their parents also like to travel. Their eldest son, Keith, is a teacher at Hallock; Stan is a minister with the ALC at Buffalo, S. D. and Robert is presently with the Armed Forces and is stationed overseas. It is strangely quiet at their house, Mrs. Rosengren declares. With three lively boys all involved in high school sports (track, football, basketball) and in scouting, there wasn't any lack of activity around the place for years. Now the house echoes with mostly memories.

What's new?
That's an oldie!
But what IS new?

Why not read "The Wall Street Journal", "The New York Times", "The St. Paul Pioneer Press; The Minneapolis Tribune" and the "Thief River Falls Times" and find out exactly what's what with current events!

Why not rush to the library and pick up "Life" or "Time"? Perhaps you'd rather read "Newsweek" or "Business Week"? Or would you rather have "Atlantic Monthly" and "Changing Times" and "Fortune" or "Harper's"?

All the newest are available to you. . .your source of "Information, please". . .keep abreast of the current events.

Non-fiction books. . .and current events. . .they go together on the library shelf like peaches and cream! Barry Goldwater, that man of the moment, is written about by Edwin McDowell. "Mr. Kennedy and the Negroes" by Harry Golden is also on the non-fiction shelf. You'll find "The Burden and the Glory" which describes John F. Kennedy's hopes for the future of our country. You'll also find "Mandate for Change" and "Black Like Me".

These volumes all cover questions uppermost in the minds of the reading, thinking American public. These volumes are on the shelf for you to read and learn from and enjoy.

It is important that Americans keep abreast of the times, become acquainted with events and get to know the people in the public's eye!

The best place to go. . .to make sure you know. . .is your public library.

Current events are fictionalized, too. Have you remembered to pick up "Convention", "68". . .so you'll know what goes on backstage at a national political convention. Then remember there's "480", another novel about politics.

But maybe you're the type who'd rather cover the "Current events" on the fashion front. Try "The New York Times" for that. . .skim through "Vogue" and "Seventeen" and "Mademoiselle".

Perhaps it is the "Miss America" contest or closer to home "Miss Aquacade" that's filling your thoughts. There are books on charm and books on beauty; there are publications which are sure to please you. . .because the latest beauty secrets are revealed. . .in bold black and white print!

Some like the past to season the present and the future. If you're one who likes to recall. . .there are many volumes for you to enjoy. Volumes, perhaps, which spell out the current events of an earlier year.

Maybe the "current event" most popular in your family, right now is the pending vacation. There are atlasses and maps and magazines and papers which help you locate the spot and enable you to learn more about the locale. You'll then know what to look for, and at, when you arrive. There are books on camping, too, and vacationing with children and books that help you make up your mind about where to go, and when!

Regardless of which event is currently taking your thoughts. . .there IS A book about it. Your library. . .that's where you'll find the key to all your questions about "Current Events".

Be sure to read more in '64. . .stay mentally alive for '65.

Jamboree Scouts To Consume 100 Carloads of Food

James Maves, Local Scout, Writes of Experiences at Valley Forge Jamboree

Editor's Note: The following is a letter received from James Maves, Thief River Falls Boy Scout, attending the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. "Web" Maves.

Valley Forge, Pa.

After six days at the Jamobree, Troop 68 has sampled most opportunities available to them. We have hiked around the Valley and seen many historical points of interest. On Monday the boys visited the soldier's huts and compared them to General Washington's headquarters.

Many of the boys are spending their afternoons at the Skill-O-Rama areas. Here troops from all parts of the country put on exhibits and demonstrations. The boys sampled rattlesnkae meat, squirrel, ground hog, buffalo, shrimp and alligator. All the food is given to the scouts at these areas.

Each troop of 32 boys is divided into four patrols of eight each. The boys eat on a picnic table under a dining fly. Each patrol is furnished with all necessary equipment to prepare the food. Each Scout must furnish his own silverware. Two leaders eat with each patrol and rotate patrols after every meal.

During the 11-day period at the Jamboree the boys and leaders will eat over 100 freight-car loads of food. They will use 47,000 cases of canned food; 80,000 quarts of milk a day; 8,500,00 paper plates and cups; 75,000 chicken drumsticks and thighs (1 meal); 25,000 pounds of steak (1 meal); 25,000 quarts of ice cream (5 meals); 22 miles of frankfurters (2 meals); and 245 tons of charcoal.

It would take one boy 1,712 years to eat all the food consumed at the Jamboree.

765 Scouts have come from 40 other countries around the world as guests of the United States.

Christensen Herd Again Tops DHIA Monthly Report

Pennington County DHIA Announces Records for Herds During Past Month

For the second consecutive month, Clyde Christensen's herd heads the top ten dairy herds for the month of June, according to Orville Peters, supervisor of the Pennington county Dairy Herd Improvement ass'n. Average production per cow in his herd was 1,338 pounds of milk and 50.3 pounds of fat.

The association tested 25 herds with a total of 758 cows and an average of 30.3 cows per herd. Eighty-seven per cent of the cows were milking. The average amount of milk produced per cow was 959 pounds which tested 3.68 per cent fat. This amounted to 35.3 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Five cows finished with over 500 pounds of butterfat during the testing year in a 365-day or less lactation. They were owned by Mehrkens Farms, Inc., 11,890 pounds of milk and 534 pounds of fat; Dale Svendsgaard, 14,420 pounds of milk and 532 pounds of fat, and 13,080 pounds of milk and 552 pounds of fat; and Warren and Lowell Hamrick, 14,940 pounds of milk and 607 pounds of fat, and 14,390 pounds of milk and 500 pounds of fat.

Herd averages are affected by the number of dry cows in the herd. The amount of milk or butterfat produced is averaged out over all the cows. This gives the farmer a record of the earning power of the herd of the month.

The following is a list of the top ten herds in the association for the month of June:

Herd	Lbs. Milk	Lbs. Fat
Clyde Christensen	1338	50.3

HAPPY HOMEMAKING

by Carolyn Offerdahl

PENNINGTON COUNTY HOME AGENT

Canning and freezing fruits are beginning to come into the stores. Now is the time for homemakers to begin thinking about what they wish to preserve so the fruit can be eaten next winter. Apricots, Michigan blue berries and peaches are now on the market.

To can apricots and peaches the same procedure is followed. Wash the peaches or the apricots and remove the skins. You may leave the skins on the apricots if you wish. A quick way to remove the skins from the fruit is to place it in hot water for a few seconds so the skins will remove easily. Remove the pits from the fruit.

To keep the fruit from darkening, place it in a salt and vinegar solution. This solution is poured off, since the fruit is not preserved in this solution.

Pack the fruit into jars and cover the fruit with boiling thin or medium syrup, leaving one-half inch of space at the top. Process in a hot water bath for 25 minutes for pints and 30 minutes for quarts.

Blueberries should be washed and drained. Fill the jar to within one-half inch of top, shaking the berries down gently. Cover to within one-half inch of the top of the jar with thin or medium syrup. The processing time in a hot water bath is 10 minutes for pints and 15 minutes for quarts.

For more detailed information on the processing of these fruits, consult Extension Folder 100. Stop in the extension office and pick one up or call 681-2116 and one will be mailed.

Freezing procedure is also similar for apricots and peaches. Prepare a sugar syrup using three cups of sugar to one quart of water plus one-half teaspoon of ascorbic acid. The ascorbic acid is used to keep the fruit from darkening.

Remove the skins by placing them into boiling water for 15 to 20 seconds or until the skins loosen.

Fill the freezing containers about one-third full of prepared syrup and pack halves or slices directly into the syrup. Delay at this stage may result in darkening of the outer layer of the fruit. Completely cover the fruit with syrup, but leave about one-half inch for expansion.

In freezing blueberries, remove the stems, leaves and inferior berries. Wash in iced water and drain. For best quality and for dessert use, pack the berries in a syrup, using three cups of sugar to one quart of water, or pack in sugar, uing one pound of sugar to five pounds of fruit. For pies the berries may be packed dry without sugar or sugar syrup.

For any further information on freezing, pick up the freezing bulletin 244 from the extension office.

Good luck on your canning and freezing of fruits!

Side Line Observations

BY BILL DAHLQUIST

The Boston Herald wonders if the national debt limit serves a useful purpose. It points up the fact that Congress actually is not limited by this self-imposed limitation. In recent years Congress has solved the problem by a simple act which automatically increases the limit.

During the past year we operated under a "temporary" limit of $315 billion. If Congress had not acted the limit would have reverted on July 1 to the permanent limit of $285 billion. In taking action on the matter Congress not only continued the $315 billion "temporary" limit but stepped it up to $324 billion. This is a campaign year and we must have prosperity, with lots of dollars being tossed around. I would agree in general with the following observation of the Herald:

> "The ceiling often costs the taxpayers money. It forces the government to use unorthodox methods to meet its obligations. And it sometimes prevents the government from borrowing when the bond market is favorable.
> "Congress would do the country a favor if it eliminated the debt limit and concentrated on new ways to limit expenditures at the source. It is not the borrowing that is at fault but the spending sprees which make borrowing necessary."

I like the debt limit as it is, however, not because it acts as a curb on reckless spending but rather because I am sure this continuing increase in the limit by congressional action is embarrassing to the members of Congress. It pleases me mightily to know that they are embarrassing to the members of Congress. It pleases me mightily to know that they are embarrassed by the continuing publicity which this process is given and the evidence that is conveyed by the publicity proving that the management of our affairs in Washington is in dangerously incompetent hands.

Negotiations are now under way in an attempt to settle a wage dispute in the nation's huge auto industry. The present three-year pacts end August 31. The settlement of this argument will influence the decisions that will have to be made in about 100 other major collective bargaining agreements that are up for renewal this year. What happens in the auto industry dispute will therefore have a far-reaching effect on future trends involving such questions as inflation and the buying power of the dollar. The final decision will determine whether or not we are headed for another general round of wage and price increases.

The important consideration, in the attempts to settle these wage problems peacefully, should be the public interest. The jobs of millions of workers thruout the country, whether they are directly or indirectly involved in the various issues, will be affected by the final solutions.

The cloud of unemployment that casts a shadow over our economy may be attributed in part to the fact that we have priced ourselves out of too many world markets. Foreign competition, more and more is becoming a problem. American industry has met this problem to some extent by building plants in foreign nations, where production costs are lower. The final solution however, whether we like it or not, will be determined by our ability here at home to remain competitive.

There was a time when most of the watches that kept time for Americans were made here in America. Now most of the watches that are sold here in America are imported. Let's keep the obvious facts in mind.

The United States Senate has authorized a $5.2 billion dollar space budget that would advance the flight-to-the-moon project. An amendment that would reduce the appropriation for the manned moon flight by 10 per cent was defeated by a surprisingly narrow margin of 42 to 28. This indicates that the margin of incompetents in the senate is no longer great.

The amendment, it is encouraging to know, was offered by a Democratic Senator J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, who stated that the purpose of his amendment was to force congressional re-evaluation of the lunar expedition program. So reasonable a proposal probably did not have the support of either of our Minnesota Senators, Humphrey or McCarthy.

In speaking in favor of his amendment Senator Fulbright referred to the present program as one of "haste and waste". He stated that the $20 billion that is going into the moon expedition could be spent more profitably on "more pressing" problems such as education, and public works.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we had at least one Senator from our state who thought like that?

Now that the Republican convention is out and over we know that the control of the Republican political machine has shifted away from the eastern states and it is reasonable to assume that, for the next four years at least, the power behind the party will be spread over the western and central states and possibly to some southern states. That, I think, is in the best interests of both the party and the nation.

The overwhelming support given to Senator Goldwater, and his conservative platform in the convention, does not necessarily mean a Republican victory in November but it probably will result in a more conservative government in Washington regardless of which candidate is elected. Competent observaters seem to be generally agreed that as a result of the Goldwater victory Lyndon Johnson will become a more conservative candidate. For the first time in many years the trend seems likely to be to the right, with more support in both parties for better management of government at all levels and a more general recognition of the urgent need for sound fiscal policies and a firm dollar.

Some of the changes that are needed probably would be a little painful, but the longer we drift, and the longer we defer the reforms that are essential to real progress, the more painful the adjustments will be. It appears however that we finally are starting to move in the right direction.

State Most Generous In Old Age Payments

Minnesota is the most generous of all states in aid to old age assistance recipients and families with dependent children, according to Harold F. Miller, research director of the Minnesota Taxpayers association.

"In Minnesota the average old age assistance grant in April was $111.32 - 40 per cent above the national average of $79.46, and the average grant to families with dependent children was $50.41 per recipient - 47 per cent higher than the national average of $34.25," Miller said, quoting statistics compiled by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"Grants of aid to the blind in Minnesota averaged $111.76 - 32 per cent above the national average of $84.65 and were seventh highest in the nation.

"In aid to the disabled, last of the four categorical aid welfare programs, Minnesota's average grant was below the national average. Because of a more restrictive definition of disability, and maximum grant provisions, Minnesota's average grant was $60.91 as compared to the nation-wide average of $81.48.

"There are about 91,000 recipients in the categories of old age assistance, families with dependent children, and the blind where Minnesota is at or near the top of all the states, and less than 3,500 person in the aid to the disabled category.

"With the addition of the Minnesota medical assistance for the aged program, which became effective July 1, 1964, our state's total expenditures for public assistance will be substantially increased.

"It seems quite obvious that our expanding welfare programs need constant scrutiny to insure adequate assistance only to the truly needy," Miller concluded.

RECOGNITION at the county fair for the hard work that went into the making of scrapbooks was given in the form of prize ribbons to the three 4-H boys pictured above. A table, made with a Formica top and mahogany legs and trim, and a battery charger, both built by John Lubitz (left) won grand championships in shop and electricity. The insect collection, boasting 100 specimens, was assembled by Donald Rondorf, reserve champion in entomology. Both boys are members of the Steiner 4-H club.

Tree Cutting In State Parks Is Summer Problem

Minnesota state park managers are having problems with a few park visitors who choose to ignore the regulation which prohibits the cutting down of standing trees.

Recently at St. Croix state park a camper was discovered to have chopped down three trees in defiance of the rule. A judge at Hinkley fined him $14. The law provides for a maximum penalty of $50.

State parks director U. W. Hella pointed out today that if each one of the thousands of campers who visit Minnesota state parks each year were permitted to cut a tree per day, forested areas in the parks would soon be completely denuded.

"It is our trees, waters and other natural scenic resources which make our state parks pleasant places to visit," said Hella. "We cannot and will not permit them to be destroyed."

YEARLING RAM owned by Hoff Brothers of Perley won the grand championship in the Hampshire sheep open class at the fair. The Hoff Brothers also showed the grand champion ewe and reserve champion ewe and ram in the Hampshire division. Shown here is Gordon Hoff. The other Hoff brothers include David, Glen and Dale, and a sister Laurel, who is a member of the brother partnership.

THIS TOM turkey owned by 15-year old Linda Aaseby, New Solum 4-H club, took championship honors in the poultry division at the Pennington county fair. The turkey, a broad-breasted bronze, is 20 weeks old. Linda has exhibited at the fair six years, and has claimed four championships.

COLUMBIA open class grand champion ram is shown here with its owner, Alvin Fjeld of Goodridge. Fjeld also owns the grand champion ewe and ewe lamb. He has brought exhibits to the fair for the past 14 years. All of Fjeld's entries at the fair were registered animals.

BURN TRASH SAFELY!

HOLDING his insect collection which won him the grand championship in entomology at the Pennington county fair is Peter Solem of the Steiner 4-H club. Solem's collection boasts 101 specimens of insects, artistically arranged in a glass-fronted case.

GOOD ENOUGH to win two grand championships in two separate divisions at the Pennington county fair was this Hereford cow shown by Ross Hanson of Thief River Falls. Entered by Silas and Ross Hanson, the cow was grand champion Hereford female in open class competition. It was also selected as grand champion female over all beef animals when shown by Ross in the 4-H division.

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.

BY BERT MILLS

Washington Editor of "National Publisher"

Seven straight Presidential elections have lacked contrast in the sense that the nominees did not differ greatly in their principles and the outcome was decided chiefly on a popularity basis.

The Republicans lost five of those seven elections, starting with Alf Landon in 1936 and ending with Richard Nixon in 1960. The only exceptions were the Dwight Eisenhower victories in 1952 and 1956.

In those instances, the nation embraced a non-politician—a national hero who could just as well have been elected as a Democrat. Ike himself had trouble deciding which nomination he should seek.

Contrast will not be lacking this November. An avowed conservative will oppose a dedicated liberal. Indeed, the clearer image will be that of Sen. Barry Goldwater. You do not need to know a great deal about politics to know where he stands.

President Lyndon B. Johnson, on the other hand, will be like the tightrope walker, now leaning this way, then the other way. He will be too liberal for some Democrats, too conservative for others.

Johnson All Things to All Men

If his performance as President the past eight months is any indication, Johnson will continue to try to be all things to all men, at once the champion of both Henry Ford III and Walter Reuther, natural enemies though they may be.

If Johnson gets away with it, it will be no contest. If he can woo and win Northern liberals and Southern and Western conservatives at the same time, Goldwater will take the bad licking the pollsters foresee.

Then the Republicans who have been decrying "me too" candidates for decades will be slushed for some time to come. Whatever his faults, Barry Goldwater will offer a contrast. The theory that there are not enough conservatives to elect a President should be put to a fair test.

Principle, not popularity, may decide an election for the first time in many a year. A lot of Democrats will have to swallow hard to vote for Johnson. Many Republicans will be close to the choking point when they pull the Goldwater lever.

Independent voters, who determine the outcome of national elections, have had it easy in recent elections. The contrast between candidates has not been sharp, so they could indulge their prejudices, or sit out the election on grounds it did not make much difference who won.

1964 a Milestone

It does make a difference who wins this year. There is a distinct contrast in philosophies. It is apparent to even the most disinterested person. Perhaps the time has arrived when it is no longer possible for a thinking person to be independent.

This looks like a milestone year, one the historians will point to when they look back on this Republic in its 188th year. It is an oversimplification to speak of turning right or keeping left but that is the decision this nation will make in November.

If Senator Goldwater is defeated as badly as many people expect, it will be a long time before the Republican party ever yields its nomination to a conservative again. For there is no substitute for victory.

On the other hand, should Goldwater win or even run a close race, American politics will undergo a drastic change. It may become the rule, rather than the standard bearer to be a conservative. Contrast between candidates may become normal.

Politicians love to talk about "issues." In the recent past most such talk has been idle chatter, at least in Presidential elections. Not so in 1964. This year there is a real issue, not a phony one. There is a genuine contrast between the candidates.

Barry Goldwater has been talking for months about "a choice, not an echo." His words are apt. Voters have an unusual opportunity this year. It should be interesting and important to the nation's future.

How's Your Health?

(Prepared in the public interest by the Minnesota Medical Ass'n)

Heat is hard on the heart. According to the Minnesota State Medical association, the heart works 50 per cent harder in hot weather.

Tests have proven that in many ways heat and humidity act on the body like strenuous exercise. When blood of a sufficient temperature reaches the hypothalamus, a tiny brain center, a complicated heat-dissipating activity is set off. The heart works harder to increase the amount of blood flow. Blood vessels dilate. Blood carries heat from the muscles and internal organs. Sweat glands distill sweat from blood plasma. The rate of blood flow becomes extremely high. Many organ systems are involved, but the heart and circulation are most concerned with the dissipation of excessive heat.

Cool tips for your heart and your health from the association include:

Don't attempt to work or play as much when it's hot and humid. When temperatures rise, the heart works harder to cool and hold an even body temperature.

Plan the easiest way to do your work. The American Heart association advises "use your head to save your heart".

Pick a steady, unhurried pace to work or play.

Don't strain your heart by overestimating your strength. Don't be too proud to get help for big jobs.

Numerous short rests are better than a few long ones.

Dress for summer activity. Clothing should be loose-fitting and absorbent.

Watch your food. Lighter meals with less spicy, heavy or fat foods are better when its hot. In spite of common belief, iced drinks often make you feel hotter.

Shortness of breath, tired muscles, dizziness and fatigue are warning signals. Heed them and slow down.

In case of heat stroke, the association emphasizes that emergency treatment is not to be delayed for even a few minutes. The best emergency treatment while medical help is on the way, is to put the stroke victim in a tub of ice water, or if that is not possible to strip him and cover him with cold wet sheets with a fan blowing on them.

Winds Collapse Barn Last Week

Strong winds, possibly a twister, collapsed the barn on the farm owned by Mrs. Mina Hanson and occupied by Harold Shaver, located northwest of McIntosh, early Friday morning, July 17.

As the barn collapsed, it pinned a two-year-old bull, which neighbors released by raising the barn with jacks. Also in the barn was a veal calf which was not injured. The barn also crushed the wellhouse, depriving the farm of water.

In the same area, winds destroyed a loafer barn on the Albert Senn farm.

East Pennington Accident Noted

A two-car accident happened in eastern Pennington county Thursday afternoon, the sheriff's office reported. Meritt Christianson of Trail was traveling west on CAR 56, and at the intersection of SAR 27, SAR 3 and car 56, his car struck the left rear side of a car driven by John Kotrba of Goodridge, who was going southeast on SAR 27. Damage to the front end of Christianson's car and the left rear of Kotrba's car was estimated at $150 to $200 each.

Sticky Weather Is Replaced by Cooler Readings

Hot, sticky weather of mid-July has given way to ideal summer weather since Wednesday, with daily highs dropping to the low 80's and temperatures at night reaching the 50's. The only heavy shower during the period, fell on Wednesday, when .32 inch of rain was recorded.

The summer has been so warm to this date that ripe tomatoes are already in evidence in Thief River Falls. The first tomatoes to ripen are reportedly owned by Ed Breznay of the West Greenwood addition, who raises the firesteel variety of tomatoes.

Daily high, low temperature and precipitation readings, recorded by the North Central Airlines weather station at the municipal airport, are as follows: 81, 65 and 32 inch on Wednesday; 88 and 68 on Thursday; 86 and 60 on Friday; 82, 57 and a trace on Saturday; 83, 52 and a trace on Sunday; and a low this morning of 52 with .03 inch of rain recorded.

Today's forecast calls for variable cloudiness today and tonight with widely scattered thundershowers today. Cooler temperatures are in store for northern Minnesota tonight. High today is expected to be in the 80's; low tonight from 50 to 58.

Don't Allow A Newspaper Published Without Your Name

Says the American Bankers Magazine:

"No businessman in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you don't use more than a two line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town.

The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live-wide-awake and liberal advertising businessman."

TRF and Middle River Clash in Legion Final

Middle River and Thief River Falls will meet in the finals of the American Legion's sub-district junior baseball tournament at 8 p.m. tonight, Monday, on the Fairgrounds diamond in Thief River Falls.

The two teams gained the sub-district finals by scoring victories in Wednesday evening's semi-finals games, with coach Jerry Snyder's Middle River club edging out the Roseau juniors, 4 to 3, and coach Ralph Skay's local juniors eliminated East Grand Forks, 7 to 3. Middle River and Thief River Falls, by reason of their semi-finals triumphs, gained berths in the Ninth District tournament scheduled for Detroit Lakes' Washington Park this week.

Middle River scored three unearned runs in the fifth inning, breaking a 1-all tie, and then held off the challenging Roseau juniors in the seventh inning to record a 4 to 3 win in a semi-finals game played here Wednesday evening.

Roseau, on a single by Bryan Grand and double by Gary Brandt, scored a run in the first inning for an early lead against Middle River. In the third inning, on a double by Bruce Lunsetter, an infield out and an infield single by Rich Engelstad, Middle River knotted the game at 1-all.

In the sixth, Engelstad rapped a ground ball to second base, and pitcher Dennis Nelson, covering 1st base, fumbled the throw, with Engelstad racing around to second base on the error. Shelly Lorenson lofted a long fly to right field, with the catch. Duane Lorenson struck out on a wild pitch, but with the ball bounding to the backstop, he was able to reach first base and then advance to second; Engelstad scored on the wild pitch.

An error, on a throw, put Bob Engelstad on base. Terry Modhal was out, third to first, with Middle River runners remaining on second and third. Lynn Bernstein, batting for Steve Holmes, rapped a single to center, scoring two runs and giving coach Synder's club a 4 to 1 lead.

Roseau made a strong bid in the seventh when, after pinch-hitter Jim Toll had struck out, Drew Peterson walked and Bryan Grand singled to left field. Lynn Larson filed out to left field, but Rich Anderson, connecting for his second double, scored Peterson and Grand and Roseau trailed by one run. Brandt was given an intentional walk, and then Brian Pelowski grounded out, pitcher to first, with the play being close when Engelstad fumbled the throw.

Coach Skay's locals, behind the steady four-hit pitching of Tony Poole, took charge of their semi-finals game against coach Roger Achen's East Grand Forks team by scoring a run in the first inning and adding four runs in the second inning.

In the first, it was a walk to leadoff man Buzz Olson, a stolen base and a single by Paul Klunnes that accounted for a run. And in the second a walk to Olson and three doubles, by Rick Jensen, Klunness and John Aune, and an infield out, accounted for four runs. In this inning the locals shelled starter lefty Wayne Ostlund off the mound, and Louie Lopez was called in from right field to take over the pitching duties.

Lopez pitched shutout ball until the fifth when, on doubles by Tony Poole and Jerry Erickson and a triple by Jensen, scored a pair of runs, giving coach Skay's team a 7 to 1 lead.

East Grand Forks, scoring a run on Ostlund's home run in the second inning, and on a single by Dennis Marek, a wild pitch, and John Neppel's double in the sixth inning, caused some anxious moments for local fans in the seventh inning. Ostlund opened with a walk and Bill Gray was hit by a pitched ball. When Jerry Erickson made a wild throw after fielding Lopez' ground ball, East Side had a score and runners on first and third and none out. Lopez attempted to steal second, but was thrown out, Aune to Olson. Darrell Fore struck out, but Bill Laurent drew a walk, and East Side was still in the game. Gary Bratvold ended the suspense by lofting a high fly to right fielder Rick Jensen, who made the game-ending putout.

Oklee Student Aids Playhouse

Richard Norquist Works On BSC Drama Workshop

Richard Norquist of Oklee has been one of 21 members of the drama workshop during the first summer session at Bemidji state college. The group has contributed 1,250 hours of work assisting Paul Bunyan Playhouse personnel in the first four shows this season.

Working under the direction of Arthur Ginsburg, playhouse technical director, and Louis Marchand, assistant professor of speech and drama at BSC, members of the workshop aid in designing and making costumes, stage managing, setting up and running lights, collectin and supervisin the handling of properties, executing and striking the sets and painting all scenery and stage settings.

This week the workshop is aiding in producing Thornton Wilder's American classic, "Our Town," which will continue through Sunday. Other coming shows are the French comedy "Let's Get a Divorce," and a Paul Bunyan style production of "Sherlock Holmes."

BSC has been cooperating with the Playhouse in providing this workshop for students for the past 13 years, and according to Dr. Philip R. Sauer, chairman of the division of languages and literature of which the workshop is a part, this is the largest group of students ever to participate.

Wichterman Asks Settlement On Grain Shipping

Ben Wichterman, DFL-endorsed candidate for Congress in the Seventh district, sent a telegram last Thursday to labor and industry leaders currently involved in the Duluth grain handlers dispute, urging hhem to reach steelement before grain harvesting gets in full swing.

Wichterman told Carl Sturn, head of industry's negotiating team, and Al Levens, business agent of the American Federation of Grain Millers, that delays in moving grain because of the strike could cause severe losses to farmers, who are "innocent victims" in the dispute.

Labor and industry also could lose, Wichterman said, because losses to farmers would be reflected in less buying power.

Wichterman, former state legislator, said he holds no preference for either side in the dispute.

Junior Baseball Finale

Final "home" game for coach Ralph Skay's local American Legion junior baseball club will be played on the fairgrounds diamond tonight, Monday, at 8 p.m. The game is the final of the sub-district tournament that played its first and second rounds here early last week, and which was in a four-day recess because of the Pennington County fair. Coach Jerry Snyder's Middle River team will provide the opposition in tonight's wind-up, and the heavy-hitting club from Marshall county, already holding a 4 to 3 decision over the locals in a game played at Middle River, will be favored to score another win tonight.

The two teams, Thief River Falls and Middle River, by reason of their victories in Wednesday evening's semi-finals games, against East Grand Forks and Roseau, respectively, have gained berths in the Ninth District American Legion junior baseball tourney to be played at Detroit Lakes on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Tonight's game, though, will have a bearing on the pairings for the district tourney, so it's worth battling for the victory.

Coach Skay is well-supplied with hurling talent for tonight's game, having such boys as Tommy Cummings, Rick Jensen, Tony Poole and Pat Fischer available, and well rested. Considering the number of southpaw hitters in the Middle River lineup (and it's probable that Rick Anderson will be in the Middle River batting order tonight,) there is a possibility that coach Skay will give lefty Pat Fischer the nod. Pat worked the game against Warren on Monday night, and while he needed relief in the seventh inning from Rick Jensen, he allowed the Ponies but five hits. It was loose play, and Pat himself was guilty of a pair of throwing erros, that caused the local club to "labor" to win the game.

And speaking of minor upsets, in the sub-district semi-finals played at Ada on Thursday, Barnesville, with a two-run rally in the last half of the seventh inning, edged out the Moorhead juniors, 2 to 1; and the Detroit Lakes Lakers, with righthander Bill Hawkins pitching 14-strikeout and shutout baseball, defeated the Halstad juniors, 6 to 0. Barnesville got three-hit pitching from 14-year old righthander Clar Anderson, a youngster who was recruited from Rothsay. Barnesville and Detroit Lakes will be in the Ninth District tournament this weekend.

It will be of interest to old-time fans, especially the old St. Hilaire fans, to know that the Ted DuCharme, who plays at first base for Barnesville, is the grandson of Ted DuCharme, the old St. Hilaire Saints player. And grandpa Ted was at Thursday's game at Ada, and he sends greetings to all of his friends in this area.

The First Signs

The first signs of the approach of the autumn season is the appearance on my desk of football brochures, and this week I received coach Bill Herzog's Prowler prospectus for 1964. And, considering the nine-game schedule that the Prowlers will play this season, and noting the caliber of the teams, it's not too early for coach Bill to get the players, and the fans, football-minded.

The season will open on Friday, Sept. 4, with the Prowlers meeting the ever-powerful Moorhead Spuds at Moorhead, with game time at 7:30 p.m. On Friday, Sept. 11, the Prowlers will travel to International Falls for an 8 p.m. game against the Broncos. How's that for starting the season with a pair of "soft touches"?

Then will follow Red Lake Falls, here; East Grand Forks, here; Fargo Shanley, here; and Detroit Lakes, here. After that four-game "home stand", the Prowlers will play at Roseau, Bemidji and Crookston, with the Crookston game, on Oct. 30, closing out the schedule.

Coach Bill contends that this 1964 schedule is the strongest that has ever been put before a Prowler football squad, and I'll have to agree. There isn't a "soft touch" in the group, and three of the teams slated were among the state's "top ten" last season.

Two-Car Accident Noted Saturday

One accident was reported today by the Thief River Falls police department. At 11:15 a. m. Saturday, a car driven by Gordon Relerson of Thief River Falls was traveling south in the 200 block of Main avenue. He stopped for a car in the process of parking and was struck from the rear by a car driven by Mrs. Ardelle Offerdahl, also of this city, who was also going south on Main. Damage to Relerson's car totaled $80 and to Mrs. Offerdahl's car $125. The accident is under investigation.

This week's schedule:

July 27, Hartz Stores vs. Hamm's Beer

The city softball league will conclude its 1964 schedule of play this week, with this evening's Hartz Stores vs. Hamm's Beer game, on the Fair Grounds diamond, being the finale. There are a pair of postponed games remaining to be played, and they will be scheduled for this week, on Tuesday and Wednesday, with the Bridgeman's slated to meet the Vets, and the Hartz to play the Hamm's.

Last week's play found the Bea's clinching a tie for the league title by scoring a pair of wins. In a doubleheader, played on Wednesday evening, and with righthander Wiley Bogey pitching low-hit ball, the Bea's defeated the Thorp Loan, 11 to 1, and shut out the Hamm's, 10 to 0. The Bea's finished their league schedule with a mark of ten wins and but two losses. The Vets, with one game remaining to be played, that a postponed game with the Bridgeman's, can tie for the league title by winning this postponed game. On Thursday evening, in a game played on the East Side diamond, the Vets handled the injury-riddled Bridgeman's with considerable ease, rolling up an 18 to 10 win. The Bridgeman's, with both of their pitchers, John Drury and Bob Carlson, sidelined by injuries, were handicapped greatly in their game against the Vets. Third baseman Larry Gilbertson was the starting hurler against the Vets, but manager Wally Grovum's club raked Larry's pitching for a cluster of hits in the first inning, including a home run by Roy Pederson.

You've heard such things as: our tire will do this; this one is best, etc. Really confused!
Stop — think of buying tires this way —
- Where can I get local service
- Will the dealer guarantee his tires
- Will the dealer accept trade-ins
- Can I get credit or terms
And have you already forgotten how mad mom was when she had that flat tire not too long ago.
Don't you think it's about time you stopped "circling around." Stop in soon and let's trade tires!

Registration Ordered By Selective Service

Col. Edward P. Barrows, acting state director of Selective Service, is calling attention to the fact that all young men (including those who are or become members of a reserve component, including the National Guard) must register with the Selective Service system when they attain age 18, or within five days thereafter. Failure to register is a violation of the Universal Military Training and Serivce act, a federal law, and makes the delinquent liable to penalty.

With few exceptions, all aliens must also register for Selective Service within six months after entrance into the United States.

"All a young man has to do," Col. Barrows said, "is to present himself to the local board in the particular area he happens to be when he becomes 18. The registration process is simple and requires only a short time." "The law is specific, providing severe penalty for failure to comply with its requirements," Col. Barrows noted, adding that "the law is also specific in its requirements concerning the obligation of a registrant to keep his local board informed as to any chane in his current mailing address, in his occupational, marital, family or military status".

Col. Barrows also stated that every registrant must have his Selective Service registration card in his personal possession at all times. The registration card prepared by the local board may not be altered or changed in any manner after its preparation. A registrant who has in his possession an altered registration card may be declared a delinquent and ordered for induction ahead of other registrants by reason of the delinquency.

Col. Barrows emphasied the fact that requirements to register and legal obligations of registrants are in no way altered merely because induction calls vary from month to month.

Registration for those in Pennington county may be accomplished at any one of the following places: Local Board No. 82 office, auditorium basement, Thief River Falls; Richard Mabey, auditorium basement, Thief River Falls; or Mrs. Irene Ellingson, post office, Goodridge.

Sprinkler System Is Installed at Marvin Millwork

—A new multi-thousand-gallon underground reservoir has recently been added to the two-acre Marvin Millwork plant north of Warroad. Last week the reservoir was filled with water drawn from the nearest city main and tanked to the site in the village fire department water tank.

Five men have been constructing the tank for the past 10 weeks. It is designed for plant fire safety. The four-trunk overhead water sprinkling system was provided by Grinnell of Chicago, and will be powered by a 125 h.p. pump which will be capable of pumping 500 gallons of water per minute at 100 pounds pressure, through the 1,011 heads. An alarm is set to respond at a temperature of 165 degrees.

Attendance Down At Warren Fair

25 Per Cent Drop Noted From Record 1963 Crowds

Marshall county's 58th annual fair was generally considered a success, though attendance was down 25 per cent from last year. The probable cause of the drop was the extreme heat, along with storm-threatening weather on the final night.

The event bringing out the largest crowd was the tractor pulling contest Saturday afternoon. Twenty-five farmers entered the event and the 1,800-capacity grandstand was nearly filled.

Exhibits were down about 25 per cent in the open classes and about 10 per cent in the 4-H club department, largely because of a hot entry day and the fact that many farmers were busy with field work that had been delayed because of rains.

A total of $3,620.75 was paid out in cash premiums, down $672.75 from a record $4,293.50 paid out in 1963. No hogs were entered in the open class this year, and the cattle exhibit was down somewhat. The sheep exhibit was about normal. Exhibitors in the open classes totaled 191.

Fire Razes Barn At Middle River

Fire destroyed the barn on the Hans Larson farm, three miles northeast of Middle River, Wednesday afternoon. Defective wiring apparently caused the blaze.

John Black was working in a hay field nearby when he noticed the smoke. He phoned the Middle River fire department, which arrived in time to keep the flames from spreading to the house, which was then occupied by the Ray Rybokowski family.

Strandquist Men Hurt Wednesday In Car Collision

Two Strandquist men, Jerry Szczepanski and Alfred Nelson, were injured early Wednesday morning in an automobile rear-end collision near Strandquist. Szczepanski was returning from Thief River Falls and was traveling on a road west of Strandquist when he struck the rear end of Nelson's car which was reportedly parked on the highway.

Nelson was sleeping in his car at the time of the crash, according to Milan Sorenson, Marshall county deputy sheriff. The impact turned Nelson's car completely around, and both cars were extensively damaged.

Both men were taken to the Karlstad hospital with severe injuries. Szczepanski received facial lacerations and bruises, and has undergone X-rays. Nelson received a brain concussion and a chest injury involving a punctured lung. He was first reported in critical condition, but later listed as recovering.

Editorials . . .

"Man is incomprehensible without nature, and nature is incomprehensible apart from man. For the delicate loveliness of the flower is as much in the human eye as in its own fragile petals, and the splendor of the heavens as much in the imagination that kindles at the touch of their glory as in the shining of countless worlds."

Aquacade Time

Residents of the Thief River Falls area will be presented with another entertainment attraction this week when the local Jaycees present the 10th annual Aquacade program. Following the Pennington county fair last week, the Aquacade promises to be another entertainment bonanza with many of the five days' events to be free to the public.

We commend the Jaycees for their enthusiasm and initiative in this annual event. The Aquacade has become a tradition in its short span of years and publicizes Thief River Falls throughout a wide territory. Some of the events have changed throughout the past decade, but the changes have been made in accordance with changes in the community and desires of the public.

This year the Aquacade committee has elected to spend in excess of $300 for a fireworks display — something which has not been held in this community for a number of years. This display will be free to the public and a net loss to the Jaycees except for the intangible amount of good will. The Jaycees are not promising a huge or tremendous display for the Sunday evening fireworks, but the amount allocated will provide two ground displays and 120 aerial shots.

Free events for the public will be a National Guard display of weapons and tactics Wednesday evening at Riverside park; water fight Thursday evening on Second street between Main and Knight avenues; Aquacade parade Saturday at 10 a.m.; water ski and sports show Sunday afternoon at Tindolph park; and band concert and fireworks display beginning at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, with fireworks visible from Tindolph and Centennial parks.

The only events scheduled for which an admission will be charged are the teenage dance on Friday evening at the city auditorium and the Miss America Preliminary pageant Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Lincoln high school auditorium. The pageant will have nine contestants, including six from six area communities, competing for the Miss Aquacade title. The winner, representing Thief River Falls in the District 1 Miss Minnesota pageant, also brings favorable publicity to Thief River Falls.

We join the Jaycees in extending a welcome to Thief River Falls for any or all Aquacade events, and wish for them five days of good weather and favorable crowds.

A Good Endorsement

In quest of support for his Presidential candidacy, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona received an unsolicited endorsement last week. It came in the form of an indictment by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, speaking at a celebration of Poland's 20th anniversary as a communist nation.

Needless to say, what is good for Krushchev, the Soviet Union and the communist bloc is not good for the United States of America. If the premier does not like Sen. Goldwater, we are more inclined to think the Republican party made a smart move in San Francisco when they gave the Senator an overwhelming endorsement.

"The candidate put forward for the presidency," Khrushchev was quoted as saying in an Associated Press story, "made it clear that he wants to enter the White House under the slogans of unbridled anti-communism and war threats." Wladyslaw Gomulka, chief of the Polish communist party, declared that the United States and West Germany have "a common platform of militant anti-communism and of pushing the world to the brink of war."

We automatically dismiss the "threat of war" aspects of the talks since they have been part of the communist line for years. The "peace-loving and friendly" communists always hide their daggers when they appear in public, so there is nothing significant in the fictitious allegations.

Expressing concern over the anti-communist views of Sen. Goldwater, however, is a refreshing angle in the communist patter. Communism thrives on fear, and we believe it is out of fear that the Soviet and Polish leaders spoke. Their fear was not of a devastating nuclear holocaust, but rather of having their schemes of expanding communism in the United States and the free world brought to a halt.

If the soviets are afraid of what Sen. Goldwater as President would like to do to their plans, then we consider Khrushchev's statement as one of the best endorsements the GOP candidate could receive. And it also makes the previous policies of appeasement even more revolting to those who believe in the cause of freedom.

On Imigration

We are in receipt of a pamphlet from The American Committee on Immigration Policies, an organiation whose members are not named. It is one of many organizations, apparently, which has been organized as a protest group in opposition to change in the United States immigration laws. The committee offers a very one-sided and prejudiced view, but does express some thoughts which justify its position on unlimited immigration.

"The way to judge an immigration law or regulation is to consider its effect upon the United States; its effect upon your job, your society and your freedom," the committee states. "If a vastly increased tide of immigrants — with dominant percentages from Asia and Africa—flows into the United States...whose tax money will educate them and economics? Who will support them until they learn our language and find jobs? Who will make room for them so that they will have a place to live? Whose jobs will they take?"

"We have more workers than we have jobs," the booklet also states. "The late President John F. Kennedy stated on March 23, 1963, that we had 5 million unemployed, 14 million working part-time, and 2 million technology and automation.

"Forty thousand Puerto Rican migrants coming into New York City each year depress wages, increase crime rates, complicate already complex health and education problems and cost New York's taxpayers $35 million a year in welfare costs. Over 55,000 Mexican immigrants annually are establishing a Spanist culture in the American Southwest and are adding to racial discord, social and economic distress there."

Generally speaking, Americans are good people. They like to open the doors of the nation to the oppressed and offer freedom to those who have been enslaved in other lands. The nation, however, is like a sponge which will hold only a given quantity of water, and the saturation point is getting closer. There is some justification in leaving room for expansion in our own population—estimated to reach 196 million at the end of this year and 372 million by the year 2000.

In quoting estimated population of other nations, the committee concludes, "How many can the United States accept without being swamped? How many of the world's poor and huddled masses can we now take in and yet survive as a free people in a free society?"

These are questions worth considering.

A Worthy Move

Visiting in Thief River Falls last week was C. W. (Wes) Meyer, former editor of the Detroit Lakes Tribune and now a special representative in the department of public affairs for the Minnesota State Automobile association. He asked if we would comment on the association's move to regulate the use of motor bikes, scooters and motorcycles.

To us, some regulation of these vehicles seems desirable. This year there has been a tremendous surge of popularity for the two-wheeled machines, many of which have been modified in design and price to be attractive to a large number of potential buyers. They are certainly attractive to the young people who seem to be the major users.

The AAA has no quarrel with persons using the machines in a safe manner and in accordance with existing laws governing such vehicles. The organization is devoted to serving the motoring public, however, and the traffic hazards created by the motor bikes, 'cycles and scooters are many. In addition to requiring balance for maneuvering, they can squeeze into tight spots in heavy traffic and are more difficult to see than an automobile or other four-wheeled vehicles.

With the increased popularity of the machines, a number of dealers have made the units available on a rental basis. Little if any instruction is given on operation of the machines, creating one of the more objectionable situations concerning them. While the renter or owner may be a licensed driver, he or she will often yield to requests of others who are unlicensed to drive.

Meyer did not propose any definite regulations which the AAA would like to have enacted. He did express concern about the large number of fatalities and injuries resulting from use of the machines in Minnesota this year, but hastened to add the association does not believe the machines should be outlawed.

In Thief River Falls we have noted the rapid rise in numbers of such vehicles. It is our opinion they are convenient and useful machines when operated in a safe and practical manner by competent operators. Any regulation should be directed only toward insuring that they are operated only by such people in such a manner.

Persons having such machines should recognize this proposed regulation results from the inability or carelessness of drivers who have been involved in accidents, thereby bringing attention upon themselves.

How beef imports hurt business across Minnesota

. . . while junior U. S. Senator votes 4 times against import curbs

How many places in your home town depend largely or wholly on farmers for income? Grocery, gas station, garage, hardware, lumber, implements. You name it.

They're all losing because a 7-fold increase in beef imports in 7 years helped drive farm beef prices to an 18-year low. Now, farmer after farmer tells Wheelock Whitney, candidate for U.S. Senator, of losing $25, even $75, per head on beef. As a result, a ready-mix concrete firm reports trade down 50%. So does an implement dealer. A feed man extends credit to farmers who once paid cash. Stores feel a pinch. Bankers look anew at every loan.

Again and again, farmers have asked Washington to limit beef imports to avoid disaster. Four times, Minnesota's junior senator—Whitney's opponent—has voted against realistic import curbs.

He professes to sympathize with farmers. His actions show otherwise. This November, show you want action, not excuses, by electing Wheelock Whitney, a man who'll go to bat for farmers—and you.

Elect Wheelock Whitney U. S. Senator

He'll go to bat for you like he went to bat for baseball

Financial Report On County Fair Shows Success

Receipts Total $6,400; Record Premium Payment Is Made to Exhibitors

Review of the financial report of the 63rd Annual Pennington County fair indicates a generally successful venture, according to Wilbur Hallstrom, treasurer of the Pennington County Fair Association, Inc.

Receipts total approximately $6,400 to date, Hallstrom reported, including $2,213.30 in grandstand admissions, $606 in auto parking, $2,601 in percentage from the carnival and about $1,000 in concession fees and other income.

Total expenses were $6,625 to date, including $2,473 for grandstand entertainment (a net loss of $260) and $4,152.25 for premiums paid to exhibitors. State aid not yet received is expected to cover at least half of the premiums paid, Hallstrom said. There are several other expense items which will not be known until the end of the month.

Included in the record premium payments were $2,183 for 4-H, $875 for cattle, $274 for sheep, $319 for swine, $51 for agriculture, $134.60 for culinary, $137 for handiwork, $95 for flowers, $45.50 for Individual grandstand receipts were $837 on Thursday, $146 on Friday, $537 on Saturday and $637 on Sunday.

Hearing Held On Vacating Game Refuge

Opinions were voiced and arguments presented on the proposed vacating of the Smiley-Rocksbury statutory game refuge in Pennington county at a hearing held Tuesday evening in the Thief River Falls city auditorium. The hearing was ordered by James T. Shields, director of the division of game and fish of the Minnesota conservation department, following receipt of a petition from landowners in the refuge area. The petition, with the required number of signatures, requested that the area be vacated as a refuge.

The hearing was conducted by Steve Sokolik, land projects leader, division of game and fish. Sokolik recorded the hearing on tape for further reference and evaluation.

Sokolik began the hearing by explaining that most statutory refuges were established many years ago, the refuge in question being over 30 years old. The land within the refuge is privately-owned farm land, and no game management other than hunting restriction is possible.

Three years ago, Sokolik began a survey of the state's refuges to determine their usefulness. Many statutory refuges were found to have out-lived their usefulness, and were not serving their purpose of increasing game life.

In three years, over 3,000,000 acres of refuge land have been vacated, Sokolik said. These have been replaced with 500 wildlife management areas, in which the land is state-owned and is managed solely for wildlife production. The management areas are located in areas of good habitat, with

Grygla, Gatzke, Skime Approve Consolidation

Voters in the Grygla, Gatzke and Skime school districts approved consolidation of the districts by an overwhelming margin at the special election held Tuesday evening in each of the districts. The only close vote was in the Gatzke district where there was a five vote margin favoring consolidation.

Total vote was 581 in favor of consolidation and 140 opposed, according to Kenneth Rusten, principal of the Grygla school. Skime voters favored the proposal 37 to one. Grygla voters expressed favor with a 450 to 50 vote and Gatzke favored consolidation 94 to 89.

The consolidation of the three districts will become effective upon issuance of an order of consolidation by C. L. Stapleton, Beltrami county superintendent of schools. Consolidation is considered an important first step toward establishment of a high school which would serve the former three districts. Approval of the high school, however, has not yet been given.

Carl Jordes Note 50 Years of Marriage

The Carl Jordes of rural Thief River Falls observed 50 years of marriage Sunday, July 26, with all of their nine children beside them. The family attended morning services at Trinity Lutheran church together and had their noon meal at Noper's Fireside Room. Open house was held by the couple that afternoon in the church parlors, where approximately 250 well-wishers cam to extend their congratulations, enjoy a program and social hour, and share the anniversary cake and lunch. They came from Illinois, Utah, California, Iowa; from Minneapolis and St. Paul, and from many of the surrounding towns and Thief River Falls.

Mrs. Jorde's corsage was of yellow roses with white accents, and her husband's boutonniere was a yellow carnation. Their best man also received a boutonniere and the bridesmaid at their wedding was also given a corsage, as were those who assisted with the reception. Corsages and boutonnieres were gifts from the couple's children. On the piano was a floral centerpiece of yellow gladioli and mums and the anniversary emblem. It was a gift from Priscilla circle. On another table was placed the large bouquet which was sent for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. Borden Sagmoen of Seattle, Wash. Golden tapers flanked the rose-ornamented 5-tiered anniversary cake on the serving table.

Rev. Harold Peterson conducted the program and gave the message. James Jorde, Cando, N. D. accompanied by his wife, sang several numbers and the Golden Years group of the church also offered several vocal numbers. This was followed by a song sung in Norwegian by Mrs. Carl Torgerson to the accompaniment of Mrs. H. Peterson. James Jorde and his brother, Keith, Hereford, Tex., sang a duet, and a message from nephews Tom and Gust Jorde and families of Lakewood, Calif., was read. The honored couple was then presented to the gathering, and their eldest son, Martin of Medford, Ore., in turn introduced his brothers and sisters, Alfin Jorde, Blooming Prairie; Mrs. Elton (Evelyn) Cummings, Thief River Falls; Mrs. Gust (Myrtle) Gist of El Cajon, Calif.; Chester, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Earl (Laura) LaPointe, Minneapolis; Mrs. Ray (Doris) Spencer, Fresno, Calif., and Ruben and Donald Jorde, both of this city. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Lawrence Quanrud of Grand Forks, N. D. was presented to the group, and the best man, Mike Jorde of Mekinock, N. D. were also introduced. Mrs. LaPointe modeled the wedding dress and veil which her mother had worn, and which had been fashioned by Mrs. Knute Jorde, Norwalk, Calif., who was also present.

Kay Jorde of Blooming Prairie attended the guest book; Mrs. L. E. Aasland of Thief River Falls, a sister of Mrs. Jorde, and Mrs. Edwin Olson, a sister-in-law, poured. Mrs. Knut Jorde and Mrs. Bob Markuson, the latter of Brigham City, Utah, a niece, cut the anniversary cake which was surmounted by a miniature bridal couple under a bell, and was the trim used on the cake at the 50th anniversary celebration of Mrs. Jorde's parents, the Albert Olsons, 20 years ago. Waitresses were granddaughters of the couple, Lynn and Debbie LaPointe, Vicki Spencer and Leann and Janet Cummings. Priscilla circle, of which Mrs. Elton Cummings is a member, served the reception.

The relatives and friends of the Jordes furnished supper for approximately 175 guests at the Fireside Room in the evening.

Marji is a 1963 graduate of Lincoln high school and is employed by Northwestern Bell Telephone company. Her talent presentation will be a vocal and piano rendition of "Autumn Leaves." See story in today's Times.

At Aquacade Pageant . . .

Marji Dalzell Is Queen Contestant

Editor's Note: The following is the final in a series of nine interview feature stories on candidates for the Miss Aquacade title at the Thief River Falls Jaycees Aquacade Saturday at 8 p. m. in the Lincoln high school auditorium. The contest is an official Miss America Preliminary pageant.

Since she first sang on radio at the age of two years, Marji Dalzell has been a member of a family group known as "The Musical Dalzells". The family has presented programs in a number of Minnesota communities, Iowa, Nebraska, Washington state and western Canada. One appearance was far from home at Dawson Creek, British Columbia, Canada.

Nineteen-year-old Marji is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Dalzell of Thief River Falls, a 1963 graduate of Lincoln high school, and has been employed at the Fashion Shop and Northwestern Bell Telephone company in this city. The latter is her contest sponsor. She is 5 feet, 8½ inches tall, weighs 125 pounds, has blond hair, blue eyes and a 34-22-35 figure.

When in high school Marji had a preference for vocal music activities. She was a choir member for three years, trio member for two years and sextette member for one year, also doing solo work for two years. In her junior and senior years she was a cast member of school operettas and was a member of Future Nurses' association and pep club.

Marji has studied piano for eight years and voice for three years. She is a member of the choir at First Baptist church where her father is pastor, and also sings in the church's traveling trio. For her talent number at the pageant she will have a piano and vocal rendition of "Autumn Leaves".

Among her hobbies are reading of novels and collecting records, mostly semi-classical and records from musicals. She likes to swim, water ski, skate and bowl and is an avid hockey fan. In her church she has taught Sunday school for two years and has been secretary of the Christian Youth Fellowship for two years.

Eldest of three children, Marji has two younger brothers, Reggie, 15, and Bryan, 6.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor's Note: The following reflections upon returning to Thief River Falls after an absence of 35 years were written by Mrs. Mildred (Anderson) Tessum, who returned from Seattle, Wash., to attend the reunion of the Lincoln high school class of 1929. Local readers, as well as those receiving the Times after moving to other communities, should find the article interesting.

AFTER 35 YEARS

After an absence of thirty-five years, I find the shock of coming back difficult to cope with. I can't eat for the excitement of being home again. This beautiful city where I was born is cleaner and brighter than I remember it, and the new buildings and bridges are a miracle to me.

There's a terrible loneliness about coming back. Seeing the old feed store without my father bustling about inside—the old home painted a different color and with the welcome mat gone—the high school new and remote and unfamiliar. Even the county fair is different—each face I peered into, hoping to see a smile of recognition, was blank and unresponsive.

But it isn't all like that. The friends I look up—I just marvel at what little change the years have brought—somtimes the first glance shows different dimensions and coloring—but after a few words, the spirit and personality shows through, with almost no change at all.

Everyone remembers something I had forgotten: the time my friend and I cooked asparagus for my parents, and we threw away the tender tops and very briefly cooked the tough bottoms, and how polite my father tried to be in not saying anything; the time my twin was sick and my mother's friend stayed up all night putting hot compresses on her; the many wonderful times we had in church league.

I visited one of my favorite old haunts—the library. It is so much smaller than I remember it. I wanted to sit there awhile and think, but I couldn't bear the memories crowding down upon me.

I like the auditorium as it used to be—old and dirty and bulky—we had our church Christmas programs there. I remember the Christmas I had to say the Christmas Gospel before a large audience—I had on a wine-red dress with a gold lace sash, and I was scared. I can still see the three wisemen coming up the aisle, I thought they looked so fat.

As in God's sight, "a day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years but a day"—so the 35 years have become as a minute. After being here a few days, I have the feeling of belonging again. My family and life in Seattle seem but a pleasant dream that never really happened at all.

I'd like to stay here for the rest of my life—but since I can't—I'll take with me this warm, warm feeling for a very wonderful city. My home town.

I've often wondered why our paths in life have to go so asunder. Why couldn't this have remained my town through the years?

Sometimes life does seem to be unfair. Do you chance to know the story of Elijah and the Rabbi Jachanan?

"This Rabbi went on a journey with the prophet Elijah. They walked all day, and at nightfall they came to the humble cottage of a poor man, whose only treasure was a cow. The poor man ran out of his cottage, and his wife ran too, to welcome the strangers for the night and to offer them all the simple hospitality which they were able to give in straitened circumstances. Elijah and the Rabbi were entertained with plenty of the cow's milk, put to sleep in the best bed while their kindly hosts lay down before the kitchen fire. But in the morning the poor man's cow was dead.

"They walked all the next day, and came that evening to the house of a very wealthy merchant, whose hospitality they craved. The merchant was cold and proud and rich, and all that he would do for the prophet and his companion was to lodge them in a cowshed and feed them on bread and water. In the morning, however, Elijah thanked him very much, and sent for a mason to repair one of his walls, which happened to be falling down, as a return for his kindness.

"The Rabbi Jachanan, unable to keep silence any longer, begged the holy man to explain the meaning of his dealings with human beings.

" 'In regard to the poor man who received us so hospitably,' replied the prophet, 'it was decreed that his wife was to die that night, but in reward for his kindness God took the cow instead of the wife. I repaired the wall of the rich miser because a chest of gold was concealed near the place, and if the miser had repaired the wall himself he would have discovered the treasure. Say not therefore to the Lord: What doest thou? but say in thy heart: Must not the Lord of all the earth do right?' "

The Library Corner

by Virginia Gjernes

"The Journey's Echo" by Freya Stark. The title describes the collection now on display at your library better than any other three words you could possibly recall. The objects create an echo of a year abroad in the ears of Eric D. Hammershoy. Eric, the son of a member of the Board of Trustees of your library, returned recently from Turkey. He spent most of the past year teaching in an American school. Vacations during the term enabled his visiting other lands and peoples. He brought home several objects to serve as reminders, silent echoes, of his experiences. Among them are dolls from Israel, an antique Turkish coffee grinder, a replica of the Dead Sea Scrolls; a shawl from Israel, a Turkish puzzle ring, Meerschaum pipes and other keepsakes. It is a collection which will intrigue the artistic and please the practical. Be sure to stop in and see it. . .and borrow one of the books about the points of origin of the objects.

The newest on the shelf is "The Journey's Echo" mentioned above. The author well-known for nearly 50 years, has put forth her innermost thoughts about the lands and the inhabitants of some of these far-off places. Her words are simple and easy to read, but the thoughts they carry are magnificent. For you who like prose near to poetry, this is the author for you.

Ernle Bradford's book "Ulysses Found" created quite a stir the first of the year, when it was published in the U. S. It is exciting and factual, furnishing the daydreamer with enough material to do for quite a spell. If history, its teachings, its aftermath, appeal to you. . .borrow this.

If you like lots of pictures with a little print. . .take home "The Holy Land" distributed by Doubleday & Company, Inc., the work of J. Creten. The narrative which is included along with the 30 color prints is simple to read and describes the region in a manner totally unlike books usually written about it.

Juveniles haven't been neglected either. . .for "The Land and People of Syria" by Paul Copeland is an excellent introductory volume to this section of our world. The author, a school-teacher - turned - historian - turned - architect—back to teaching, spent four years in Syria. Prior to that time, 2 years in Lebanon. The volume, one of the Portraits of the Nation's series, is excellent for the fifth or sixth grader, or any others seeking good general information about one of the smaller countries in the world today.

"The Wind Off the Island", another of E. Bradford's efforts, is a vivid word-picture of the Mediterranean, and Sicily and Greek islands. You meet the people, visit the villages, fight nature and thoroughly enjoy your voyage with your able guide.

Life's World Library volume on "Greece" is full of black and white and colored photographs of the ancient and the modern. You'll better understand the customs of old and realize the necessity for changes the future might bring. For a simple concise and beautiful volume, take home "Greece".

Leon Uris and Dimitrios Harissiadis collaborated for Doubleday & Company and produced "Exodus Revisited". The scenes from Israel and the captions explaining them are a key to unlock the door of understanding between nations and between people.

There are others, many others, on the shelves of your Library. Books and books which tell about people and places most of us will never meet face to face. We can still visit them. . .so simply, so easily, it is hardly worth mentioning. . .just pick out the "trip" you'd like to take, hand your 'ticket' to the librarian. . .and you're on your way. . .to Greece, to Turkey, to Israel, to Syria. You may go by land, by sea or by air. . .the fare is still the same. . .one little library card! Free for the asking!

Use your "ticket" soon.

Hearing Held On Rocksbury-Smiley Game Refuge Tues.

both wetland and upland environment. They are opened to hunting in the fall to insure a game harvest.

Chief among the arguments presented in favor of the refuge was the possibility of more reckless shooting on the land, endangering life and property. In reply, Sokolik repeatedly stated that a statutory refuge, as legally defined, is for wildlife protection only, and not for personal or property protection. Offenses against the person and property, he said, are the responsibility of city, county and state law enforcement agencies, which are much more adequate in number than are game wardens.

Also argued was the idea that since wildlife populations are dwindling, refuges should be maintained to protect remaining wildlife. Sokolik contended that, at the present time, there is as much game outside the refuge as on it. "A large, restricted area does not of itself produce wildlife," he said.

Among those who favored vacating the refuge was Maurice A. Newton, area farmer and spokesman for the Smiley board of supervisors. The general consensus among board members, he said, was that the refuge is useless and should be vacated.

The hearing, which began at 8 p. m., ended about an hour later. The recording of the hearing will be one factor used by the conservation department in making the refuge.

In Memorium

In loving memory of husband, Louis Roseland who passed away August 1, 1962:

Since You Went First
Since you went first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known,
In spring I wait for roses red
When fades the lilac blue,
In autumn, dear, when brown leaves fall,
I catch a glimpse of you.
Since you went first and I remain
For battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way
Is now a hallowed spot.
I hear your voice, I see your smile,
Though blindly here I grope,
The memory of your helping hand
Does spur me on with hope.
Since you went first and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
With Christ no vain shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.
With him we've known of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.
Since you went first and I remain
One thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly on that homeward path,
For soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
That I may walk the same;
For some day down that pathway, dear,
You'll hear me call your name.

Mrs. Louis Roseland. 1t62p

Card of Thanks

I could never leave Thief River Falls without publicly thanking the many, many wonderful people who assisted us through the years in countless ways. To list you each individually would fill this column, but if you are among those who gave so generously of your time and effort, and your personal warmth, this message is for you. Your helpfulness, in times of illness, your giving us rides on so many occasions, and the moral support you lent us when it was so much needed, leave lasting memories and hearts filled with the glow of profound gratitude. Without your help, so freely given, we could have never reached the state of independence and sense of accomplishment that we now know. God will note your golden deeds, and we shall remember them always. Mrs. Flora Allison, Diane and Bill. 1t61p

Legion Juniors Win Sub-District Crown

Out-Last Middle River Nine 12-10 On Monday Night

In a game that was featured by rally and counter-rally, and four home runs, coach Ralph Skay's local juniors edged out coach Jerry Snyder's Middle River club, 12 to 10, in an American Legion sub-district baseball tournament final played here Monday evening.

The local juniors will participate in the American Legion's Ninth District tournament at Detroit Lakes, meeting the Fertile juniors in a first-round game at 6 p.m. on Friday. Other first round games scheduled for the Washington Park diamond in Detroit Lakes on Friday will find the Middle River juniors meeting Bagley at 2 p.m.; Barnesville playing Deer Creek at 4 p.m.; and Fergus Falls playing Detroit Lakes at 8 p.m.

Coach Skay's squad, which boasts a season's record of 18 wins and 7 losses, will play a double-header against coach Swede Lund's Devils Lake juniors at the Fairgrounds on Wednesday evening, with games being slated for 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Explosive baseball highlighted Monday evening's sub-district finals between Middle River and Thief River Falls. In the top half of the first inning, coach Snyder's hard-hitting club racked up six runs, with Terry Modahl's home run over the left-field fence being the "power" blow. The ball hit the top of the fence and bounced over for a home run.

The locals came back with a six-run burst in their half of the first inning, raking righthander Rich Lorenson for six hits, including a home run loft over the fence in right-center by Paul Klungness and a three-run home run over the left-field fence by Tony Poole.

In the second inning, an error, a double by Mike Benke, and a single by Tony Poole gave the locals a pair of runs and an 8 to 6 lead.

Entering the seventh inning the local nine held a 9 to 8 lead, but Middle River, on a walk to Rich Anderson, an infield hit, an error, and a single by Duane Lorenson, scored a pair of runs to take a 10 to 9 lead. With runners on second and third, and none out, coach Skay called in Tommy Cummings in relief of starter Rick Terry Modahl and retired Bob Engelstad on a tap to the mound. Bruce Lunsetter was nicked by a pitched ball, loading the bases, but Paul Klungness gathered in Ron Lorenson's fly ball to end the rally.

In the last half of the inning a throwing error gave Jensen a "life", and when the ball rolled through the fence behind first base, Rick moved to second. Buzz Olson was out on a pop foul to the catcher. Klungness lined a single to center field, scoring Jensen, and on the throw to the plate, Paul advanced to second. John Aune then accounted for the game-winning tally by driving the ball into right-center, scoring Klungness, and when the Middle River outfielders were tardy in covering the hit, Aune circled the bases and beat the throw to the plate for an inside-the-park home run.

Swimming Program At Old Mill Park To End August 7

638 Youngsters Taking Part in Water Safety Program at Park Pool

Marshall county water safety and swimming instruction program at the Old Mill state park will end Friday, August 7, according to Paul Spilde of Argyle, head instructor.

The program, which ordinarily runs for eight weeks, has been extended another week to make up for numerous cold weather cancellations which took place in June.

Official Red Cross water safety tests are now being given to all of the swimming students. The final day of the program, August 7, has been reserved for special demonstrations by each of the nine participating communities.

A total of 638 county youngsters are taking instruction in this year's swimming program at the Old Mill, states Spilde. The breakdown by groups is as follows: Beginners, 377; advanced beginners, 131; intermediates, 70; swimmers, 40; junior life saving, 14; senior life saving, 6.

Assisting as instructors are Susan Fischer, Gerri Hoaas, and Kathy Wood, all of Warren; and DeLaine Dufault, Diane St. Germain, and Diane Andeen, all of Argyle.

Nine communities in Marshall county are participating in the swimming program this summer. They are Argyle, Alvarado, Holt, Warren, Oslo, Middle River Viking and Strandquist. The instructional costs are being paid this year by these communities on a proportionate basis.

Softball League Playoff

The Vets, by scoring a 12 to 0 win over the Bridgeman's at the Fairgrounds on Tuesday evening, in a game that was called at the end of the fifth inning, moved into a tie with the Bea's Food Market for the city league championship. A playoff game, with the league title at stake, will be played on Thursday evening, at the Fairgrounds. Game time has been set for 6:30 p.m.

In Tuesday night's season-ending game, the Vets picked up a pair of runs in the second inning on Don Engelstad's home run over the left-field fence with Frank Harger on base. And in the third inning the Vets erupted for five runs, with Joey Poole poling a two-run home run over the center-field fence. John Drury, bad leg and all, was on the mound for the Bridgeman's, while Wally Grovum hurled the shutout for the Vets. And it's probable that Wally will be given the pitching duties against Wiley Bogie and the Bea's on Thursday evening.

An exhibition game has been scheduled for the fairgrounds softball diamond on Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m., with the Vets playing the Argyle club.

Vikings' Intra-squad Game

The Minnesota Vikings football team will play a 60-minute intra-squad game in the Bemidji State college stadium on Saturday, August 1. The proceeds of the game will go to the BSC scholarship fund.

It isn't strictly a game, but rather a controlled scrimmage, with offensive and defensive units paired against each other. According to the conversation of the football fans along Third and LaBree, there will be quite a few local football enthusiasts attending the scrimmage.

5,000 seats are available in the stadium, and reserved seats, at $1.50 per ticket, can be purchased here in town at the J. & B Drugs. And it is perhaps wise to make a ticket purchase in advance as they expect a capacity crowd at Saturday night's scrimmage. The scrimmage is slated to start at 8:30 p.m.; but various field activities will be held and these festivities will start at 7:45 p.m.

Quarterbacks Fran Tarkentown and Ron VanderKelen will alternate in the driver's seat on offense, and it will be interesting to watch the response of the offensive unit to the urgings of the two quarterbacks. Certain to be the target of the passing of Tarkenton and VanderKelen will be end Paul Flatley, who was a "rookie of the year" in the National Football league last season.

Football fans should get a good idea of the Vikings' potential in Saturday night's affair as the Minnesota club, on Saturday, August 8, will play the New York Giants in an exhibition game in Metropolitan stadium. Coach Norm Van Brocklin must have his offensive and defensive units pretty well organized by this time.

That Saturday night football date does pose a problem, though, for that's the date when the Jaycees Aquacade will hold its Miss Aquacade contest in the Lincoln high school auditorium.

Mixed Emotions

It was with mixed emotions that I "enjoyed" the 12 to 10 win that coach Ralph Skay's local American Legion juniors scored over the Middle River juniors on Monday night in the finals of the sub-district tournament. I, of course, had picked the Middle River club to defeat the locals, and that didn't come to pass. I did have a few moments of "I can pick 'em" feeling when, in the first inning, Middle River scored six runs. Didn't last very long as the locals, with Paul Klungness and Tony Poole hitting home runs, turned in a six-run first inning performance, knotting the game.

But with their win over Middle River, the local club gained the 6 p.m. pairing in Friday's opening round of play in the Ninth District tournament at Detroit Lakes. And the team to oppose coach Skay's team on Friday will be the Fertile juniors. In a sub-district game at Fosston this past week, Fertile's Red Olson struck out 17 batsmen as Fertile defeated Fosston. And it's a cinch that Olson will be well-rested for Friday evening's game against Thief River Falls.

It's true that the locals clubbed Rod Olson quite hard in a game against Fertile here some weeks ago, and the local batsmen should have gained some confidence in that game. But the chunky Fertile pitcher can be a rough customer when he is "on". Middle River, in a 2 p.m. game on Friday, will be playing Bagley, and Bagley doesn't have a hurler to compare with Fertile's Rod Olson. That 12 to 10 win (and I'm giving John Aune credit for an inside-the-park home run as he made the circuit of the bases, and Middle River played the ball) can prove to be costly as far as district tournament play is concerned.

Highway accidents in the U. S. took a record number of lives in 1963. Some 42,700 persons died on the nation's highways last year, and more than 3,460,000 were injured.

Minnesota Shows Net In-Migration in '63

Minnesota population increase as of April 1, 1963, was an estimated 49,062 over the previous year. An excess of births over deaths accounted for 47,250 of this increase. The remaining 1,812 was due to net in-migration, acording to the Minnesota Department of Health.

Although the increase due to net in-migration was slight, 1963 estimates are the first for many years to show a net in-migrations. For the 1950 decade there was an average yearly out-migration of 9,690.

Minnesota population was estimated to be 3,541,778, as of April 1, 1963, as compared to an estimated 3,492,716 for the previous year. Population estimates are included in the recently released 1963 vital statistics report prepared by the section of vital statistics, Minnesota Department of Health.

There were 80,250 resident live births in Minnesota in 1963, the lowest number since 1953. The birth rate of 22.7 per 1,000 population was the lowest since 1945. Even so, the Minnesota birth rate was 5.1 per cent higher than the 1963 provisional national rate of 21.6. Actually, 1,379 more babies were born to Minnesota residents in 1963 than were born in 1951 when the birth rate was a record high of 26.5 (79,871 live births). Male births in 1963 outnumbered female births by the ratio of 1,058 to 1,000.

Resident death total in 1963 was 32,698, the largest number on record. In every age category except that for 85 years and over, there were more male than female deaths and 58.3 per cent (19,053) of all resident deaths were males. The median age at death was 70.6 years for men, 75.0 for women.

The 15 leading causes of death accounted for 91.7 per cent (30,016) of all resident deaths. In rank order they were: heart diseases (12,471), cancer (5,387), vascular lesions affecting the central nervous system (4,285), accidents (1,802), pneumonia and influenza 1,250), diseases of early infancy (1,011), general arteriosclerosis (830), diabetes mellitus (612), other diseases of the circulatory system (427), congenital malformations (410), other bronchopulmonic diseases (394), suicide (371), cirrohsis of the liver (324), ulcer of the stomach and duodenum (242), and hernia and intestinal obstruction (200).

Of the 25,061 marriages reported in 1963, 28 of the brides and 66 of the grooms were over 75 years of age. The marriage rate of 7.1 per 100,000 population and the divorce rate of 1.3 were about the same as they have been for the past 10 years.

Fosston Dry Milk Plant Remodeled

Increased Volume Makes Expansion Plan Necessary

Land O'Lakes Creameries dry milk production plant at Fosston, Minnesota, over the past three years has been remodeled so that it now has the capacity to dry all the milk which Land O'Lakes processes from Northwestern Minnesota, according to Land O'Lakes News. It can process over one million pounds of skim milk per day.

One of the newest innovations was the installation of a new storage and bagging program. Three large storage tanks for bulk powder were placed on the second floor. Powder from the first two shifts is stored in these and then quickly bagged during the third shift. To accomplish this new automatic weighing and filling equipment was installed. This, too, is an attempt to reduce costs.

To get greater production from the dryers, by using direct heat, propane gas is now used. The boilers are still fired with coal. However, a new larger boiler has been installed.

North Central Airlines Receives Safety Citataion

National Safety Council Gives Award of Honor For Having No Accidents

North Central Airlines today received the National Safety council's top award for its perfect safety record in 1963. The airline provides service from the Thief River Falls municipal airport.

The council's coveted Award of Honor was presented to North Central in recognition of the airline's record of no fatal accidents during the calendar year and an accident rate lower than the average rate for its group in the preceding three years.

North Central has won a safety citation every year since it began scheduled operations in February, 1948. During this period, the Minneapolis-St. Paul based airline has flown 1,400,000,000 passenger miles and carried 8,700,000 passengers without a single fatality or injury to passengers or crew members.

Hal N. Carr, North Central president, called the award another milestone in the company's progress. He viewed it as a tribute to the dedication and efficiency of the airline's employees in performing their daily work safely.

The airline serves 91 cities in 10 states and Canada over a 7,000-mile route system.

Editorials . . .

"The less there is said of physical structure and laws, and the more there is thought and said about moral and spiritual law, the higher the standard of mortals will be, and the farther they will be removed from imbecility of mind and body. We should master fear, instead of cultivating it. It was the ignorance of our fore-fathers, in the departments of knowledge broadcast in the earth, which made them more hardy than our trained physiologists, more honest than our sleek politicians."

The Real Surplus

While the number of farms in the last 30 years has dropped almost by half—from 6,800,000 in 1933 to 3,700,000 in 1963, the number of employees in the U. S. Department of Agriculture has quadrupled—from 32,000 to 122,000.

While the number of farms has decreased, production of agricultural products has increased greatly through more efficient farming practices, better seed and chemical weed and insect control. It is said we have a surplus of a number of farm commodities, but it would seem the biggest surplus is in the number of employees in the department of agriculture.

Another Conviction

James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was convicted recently in Chicago on three counts of fraud and one count of conspiracy in arranging loans from the multi-million-dollar Teamster's pension fund. The jury found him innocent of 17 counts of fraud.

We suppose that the union boss's supporters will now point out that Hoffa is basically a good guy since he was cleared on the 17 charges of fraud. The Hoffa clan had defended him enthusiastically in the past, claiming that he is the victim of people "out to get him". The people "out to get" Hoffa should be the members of his union who have their hard-earned dollars invested in the funds he has been mis-using.

Hoffa and six others were charged with 20 counts each of fraud, and one count of conspiracy in fraudulently arranging loans of more than $20 million from the pension fund and diverting more than $1 million to themselves.

The Teamster boss was sentenced in March to eight years in prison on a charge of attempting to bribe a jury in Chattanooga, Tenn. With this much going against him, it is difficult to see where he can continue to have a following among the rank and file of the union membership. There are those, however, who contend that he is basically a good man.

The actions of Hoffa, and his indictments and convictions on a number of illegal practices, indicate what happens when power is centralized in an organization. When one man assumes control and is far removed from the men who gave him his power, that man has ample opportunity to set himself up in a virtual dynasty. This is not the first time that such a thing has happened.

A Change Proposed

We would like to take issue with James C. Marshall, Minnesota highway commissioner, and his proposal to the legislature's interim highway commission that the depreciation with age feature of the present motor vehicle registration tax be eliminated.

Marshall told the commission that eliminating the depreciation feature would increase revenue and make the tax a true road user tax, since it would mean the tax paid for a car license would not decrease as the vehicle gets older but would remain constant. He stated it would also mean everyone would pay an equal tax for equal use of the state's roads.

The highway commissioner continued that "older vehicles use highways and streets, in most cases, as much as new ones. The depreciation feature is apparently an application of the personal property tax principle which appears to have no true relevance to motor vheicles and their use of the highways."

We can't quite agree with the commissioner. In many cases the automobile is now a necessity item, a vehicle upon which thousands of people depend for their livelihood. A large percentage of the people purchasing new cars do so because they need dependable transportation for the large number of miles they must drive to fulfill the obligations of their jobs. They have sufficient mileage after a year or two to warrant a change in cars.

The normal car user, unless he is in the upper income bracket, keeps his car for a much longer period of time. He does not drive as many miles and therefore his car lasts longer. A farmer, for instance, may have several vehicles, each taxable, among which he divides the miles he travels on the state's roads. To him the reduced license cost for older vehicles is a welcome saving.

If a true road-user payment is to be devised, it should be based on a combination of vehicle weight and mileage traveled. Such a system, however, would require a considerable amount of book work and that is undesirable.

Commissioner Marshall's plan might not be too offensive if the license rates were levied at an average rate for all vehicles. We doubt very much that this would be done. It would be more likely that the highway department, in quest of more funds, would merely eliminate the reductions for older cars and maintain the present rate structure for newer vehicles. It would surely be an easy way for the department to give a big boost to its revenue.

No Simple Heaven

"You can't legislate equality; you have to deserve it. You can't demand success; you have to earn it. You can't be handed an education or skill; you have to learn by hard work. You can't vote yourself security; you have to produce for it and save for it.

"For hundreds of years false 'leaders' have preached, 'Give me your support and I will care for you. I will take from others and give you a living you don't have to work for.' And for those same hundreds of years men have been drugging themselves into that dream — and waking up not in heaven but in purgatory."

About Pay Raises

Writing in Minnesota News Features, Orlin Folwick comments on the pay raise recently granted themselves by U. S. senators and congressmen. He then poses the question, "If they have decided they are worth $30,000 a year to their constituents, what value can be placed on the services of a Minnesota legislator?" The question is a good one. We quote from Folwick's article:

"He is probably the worst paid public servant in the state, skimping along on $2,400 a year. For this kind of pay he must be able to pass good laws, run errands for his constituents, be their advisor, attend their meetings and in numerous ways neglect his regular means of earning a living.

"Were legislative service a job to which retired citizens with a pension and nothing to do might be sent, the current pay might be ample enough. But for citizens devoted enough to public affairs to even want to take a hand in government, it is a ridiculous wage.

"For his working days, a congressman will be drawing $120 a day at the new schedule, less, of course, deductions. A Minnesota legislator, on the same working basis, draws $6.66, less deductions which cut him to about $5 per day.

"As a rural member, he gets $18 per day for expenses—$12 if a Twin Cities area resident during the session. Hence, a rural member for the five-month period gets $23 a day, which may sound like a lot. What nobody thinks about is that a state legislator during the session must maintain two homes—his permanent one in the district and his temporary quarters in St. Paul. All his usual expenses go on at home and, in addition, he must pay many of them over again in the capitol. Taxes, family living expenses go on at home, with even added expense if the legislator must hire replacements to keep his business going. One farmer reported he paid $1,400 for getting the chores and some minor field work done during the 1963 session.

"Actually, the work of a $6.66-per-day legislator is not much different from that of a $120-a-day congressman. The congressman deals in billions of dollars, the state legislator in millions. Otherwise, most of the problems are on the same subjects and mean the same things.

"With the current demands in public service based on the idea that good, competent service has to be paid for at commensurate rates, it is little wonder that legislators dedicated to this kind of work hope for better emoluments. No one complains if they raise the pay of other public servants beyond what they're worth, but when they sought a $100-a-month increase in 1963, the hue and cry raised indicated that a major raid on the state treasury was under way.

"That many competent legislators leave the capitol on the ground they can't afford this luxury ought to be noted by the people who would like to have intelligent, hard-headed, thoughtful citizens making the laws and spending their money."

Persons who claim we are goverened by the rich are not entirely wrong. Demands upon responsible people to work in their communities and care for their families make it virtually a financial impossibility for them to seek state office. We have brought the present situation on ourselves.

Interesting Opinions . . .

"Law cannot grant true equality any more than it could enforce complete prohibition. There are not enough marshals, deputies, sailors, marines and bureaucrats in the whole world to enforce a law which in practice endangers the safety of an American man and his family."

Side Line Observations

BY BILL DAHLQUIST

Recent race riots in northern cities should occasion no surprise. They are to be expected and probably will continue over a period of years. Informed and reasonable people expected this as one of the results of the adoption of an unwise "Rights" law which provided for "immediate" changes in racial relationships that normally, and in an orderly way, could come only with the slow progress of many years.

Those mainly responsible for this unfortunate development classify mainly as do-gooder politicians and publishers of our nation's sensational press, the newspapers that seek reader interest, not by that which is factual and informative but rather by that which is exciting and lurid. Unfortunately, here in our own state and thruout the country, too many of our newspapers of wide circulation maintain low standards of ethical journalism.

Reports indicate that a majority of the negro rioters are teenagers, and that is understandable. Most of those who are older limit their demonstrations to peaceful marching, and they do not get hurt. Many of the teenagers suffer bodily injury and some lose their lives. As a result there has been a demand that policemen be unarmed and not equipped with clubs and side arms.

My guess is that, before we get through with this mess, law and order will be maintained by rifles and shot guns, as well as clubs and side arms. It appears to me that this is inevitable. And those who will have to assume the responsibility for this tragic development will have to be those who incited the revolution by their advocacy and support of unwise legislation.

Senator Barry Goldwater does not appeal to the foreigners. The foreign press has been critical of his selection for the nomination as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. They find many things in what he has said that they do not like. It seems that he has indicated that he is for America first.

It is interesting to get the reactions of the foreigners, but it is interesting to know that the reactions are not unanimous. And the Winnipeg Tribune, generally in close touch with European reactions to things we do on this side of the Atlantic, offers this reassuring comment. Says the Tribune:

> "Whether he will be sitting in the White House in 1965 or rapidly fading as a political phenomenon, one thing is certain for the next 12 weeks:
> "Barry Goldwater will be the pivotal factor in world affairs. All the world capitals are formulating theories on what makes Barry tick. While Goldwater at this date isn't conceded much chance of becoming President, nevertheless the possibility must be weighed. Goldwater's overwhelming triumph over opposition elements of the Republican party astonished politicos beyond the borders of the United States.
> "It certainly should be anticipated that Goldwater would seek to establish a sharper definition of the American viewpoint. Fears that he might tear up the rule book, however, are not justified at least not to the extremes voiced by his critics. Statements made by Goldwater while seeking the nomination may indicate his personal feelings but, as President Kennedy observed: "Every President must endure a gap between what he could like and what is possible."
> "Thus some of Goldwater's statements, particularly in regard to Russia and UN, may indicate a philosophy but not actual policy. In stating that he intends "to win" the struggle against Communism, he is merely reaffirming the tenets of democracy. It is appropriate and timely, in fact, that this should be made clear that in making the world safe from war does not require the surrender of this principle.
> "One of the curious aspects of Goldwater's personality is that he is able to impress people with the belief that his statements of principle will be carried into concrete action. Few politicians have this faculty. The dedication to freedom and the rights of man are common enough subjects the world over but when Goldwater asserts them his critics fear that he means what he says, and his supporters hope that he will not put them into action in anything but a theoretical fashion."

My guess is that as the campaign progresses more and more people in our country, and more and more people throughout the world, will come to the conclusion that Goldwater has courage, is competent and is well informed. And very important too, I believe, that they will find that he is basically honest.

Rothsay Farmer Says Wichterman Owes $88,000

Red Lake Falls Gazette Carries Story Regarding Government Agency Loans

Red Lake Falls Gazette recently carried a story in regard to the finances of Congressional candidate Ben Wichterman of Plummer, based on charges made by Frederick Fosse, Rothsay farmer, who stated in a letter distributed to the newspapers of the district that Wichterman "owes over $88,000 to agencies that were originally government sponsored." A check of Red Lake county courthouse records by the Gazette indicates that the Fosse charges are substantially correct.

As reported by the Gazette, Fosse said:

"Red Lake county courthouse records showed as of mid-June 1964 that Wichterman owed the Federal Land Bank $11,500; the Commodity Credit Corporation $14,606; The Farmers Home Administration $31,950; and the Thief River Falls Production Credit Association $30,000.

"Wichterman's eligibility for the FHA loan was questioned by Fosse. He said that the state FHA policy is that only those unable to obtain loans from established lending agencies are to be eligible for an FHA loan. 'Yet less than a year and a half after Wichterman obtained an FHA loan, he borrowed $30,000 from PCA,' Fosse stated.

"Moreover, Fosse stated, many eligible FHA applicants are being refused the average FHA loan of $15,000 or less. He questioned how Wichterman was able to secure a loan of over $30,000.

"Data which Fosse announced was obtained from the Red lake county register of deeds by one Gerner of Blackduck who in prior years was a political supporter of William Kjeldahl who is vieing with Wichterman for the DFL congressional nomination."

Sever Holm, 93, Is Pictured in Washington Paper

Sever Holm, a former resident of the Thief River Falls area for many years before moving to the state of Washington several years ago, was recently pictured in the Bremerton (Wash.) Sun as he picked cherries from a large tree behind his house.

The picture story noted that Holm, who is 93 years of age, climbed a tall extension ladder to pick the fruit which his wife preserves in the same style as she preserved food back in Minnesota. The cherries, displayed in clear glass jars, are passed on to relatives and friends.

OUR NEW LAND

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Forty-three acres! How long we labored, hoping someday to add it to our modest farm.

Good bottom land . . . with a grove for the children to play in, a stream with an ol' swimmin' hole, and rich soil just begging for the plow.

Now it's ours! A great moment . . . full of promise . . . frought with challenge.

Sort of like that moment a few years ago when Peg and I became members of the congregation. Before that the church had been simply a familiar scene along the border of our lives. Suddenly it became our church.

And there was that deep sense of partnership with God . . . full of promise . . . frought with challenge.

There is such an abundant harvest of blessing and happiness to be reaped in life . . . if a man yearns for the best, and claims it for his own, and is ready to put his hand to the plow.

WATER which filled the streets to floor-board level and above on parked cars resulted from the heavy downpour Saturday evening. This picture was taken in front of Lincoln high school where water filled the street from curb to curb, covered the sidewalk and edged part way up on the school lawn. Persons leaving the Miss Aquacade pageant at the school removed their shoes and waded to their cars. Some sanitary sewers in the city backed up into basements.

Argyle Couple Drowned Sunday Near Warroad

A stalled motor on Lake of the Woods resulted in the capsizing of an 18-foot boat and the drowning of an Argyle couple Sunday morning. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beneski of rural Argyle. Another Argyle couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pawloski, was rescued.

The four were fishing off Springsteel Island in a cruiser powered by twin outboards. One of the motors stalled, Pawloski said, and Beneski went to the rear of the boat to fix it. Waves began rushing over the stern of the boat, swamping and finally capsizing the craft.

The Pawloskis clung to the overturned boat and were pulled from the water by two youths in another boat. Beneski and his wife were trapped in the cabin of the boat. Their bodies were removed after the craft was towed to Springsteel Island.

The team successful in forcing the ball to the other team's end won the match. In the first half single elimination, the Rotary club defeated all competition to win. The Jaycee II team beat the Rotary team to win the second half. The Rotary club went on to defeat the Jaycee II team in a playoff to cop the overall championship. Rotary team members were Dick Bjorkman, Al Bacon, Ken Onken and Dr. Ed Nelson.

Eye Bank Story Told to Lions Club on Monday

James Parkins Reviews Program, Receives Award For 24-Year Attendance

Thief River Falls Lion's club met Wednesday at the Elk's club rooms. President Ralph Luhman presided and a letter was read by club secretary, Arnt Aune, from the Junior College board concerning a letter written earlier to the board in resolution form.

President Luhman then called the following members forward, Gene Gaer, Gordon Reierson, Orlen Beich, Phil Kays, Merle Lindberg, James Parkins and Clarence Mattson. These men maintained perfect attendance records for the past year and this marked the 24th perfect year for Parkins.

Wendel Olson, program chairman, introduced Parkins, member of the Minnesota Eye bank board, who spoke to the club about the eye bank. Parkins explained that the eye bank, sponsored by the Minnesota Lion's clubs, was established in 1959 and works in cooperation with the University of Minnesota. The eye bank is maintained by donations and each club throughout the state is assessed $1.00 per member, per year and other contributions are received from time to time from individuals.

Parkins said that thus far there have been 120 corneal transplants and all have been 100 per cent successful. Only in a few cases have the patients needed to wear glasses following the surgery. He did mention that the surgery transplant must be done within 48 hours after death of the donor or the eye is rejected. The eyes are transported in primarily two methods, by airplane and by the cooperation of the Minnesota highway patrol. The patrol relays the donated eyes until they reach the University hospital, thus saving hours of precious time, and there is no charge for this service.

"No eye is wasted;" Parkins said, "those eyes not fit for transplant cornea are used for research work to find the cause and cure of eye disease."

He went on to say that many people believe that the whole eye is transplanted but this is not the case; only the cornea part of the eye is used. The eye bank is open to anyone who would like to donate their eyes after death so that some individual may see again. It is not limited to Lion's Club members, and anyone interested in donating their eyes may contact Jim Parkins of Ralph Luhman.

Parkins related some personal experiences of his in regard to the eye bank and said that after you once see what a wonderful thing regaining one's sight can be, you experience a gratifying feeling. In conclusion Parkins urged the club to support the program by active participation in the eye bank.

KITCHEN KARNIVAL

Features from the Kitchen of

MRS. FLORA ALLISON

After more than two years of happy association with you housewives of the area, I am writing this, my final effort for Kitchen Karnival, as a note of farewell. With my family now grown and away from home, I find myself somewhat at loose ends and desiring a change of scene. Consequently, I have accepted a position in St. Paul, with the firm of Brown and Bigelow. By the time you read this, I shall have put in several hours at my new job.

One of my more pleasant duties here at the Times was that of editing this column, and bringing a sampling of the favorite food ideas of many homemakers to your tables.

You have been more than kind in your acceptance of this idea, gratifyingly cooperative, and helpful. It is my hope that you will simply deluge my successor as social reporter and Karnival editor, Mrs. Lloyd (Ellen) Spray, with your choicest food ideas. Please don't wait to be called for a recipe....(I have ocasionally had to resort to this means to keep the supply of recipes constant.)

We don't want to be selective, you see. This column is for everyone, and any recipe you send in will be happily received, unless we have used it before. Please tell us about yourself too; your hobbies, a few details about your family, and any little sidelights which you think our readers might enjoy. We need your continued, week-by-week support, so if we have not heard from you previously, let's make this the week that we feature YOUR recipe.

As a parting gesture, I am leaving with you a recipe which is a favorite of mine, and one for which I receive more requests than for any other. It's a simple caramel icing, a never-fail-you kind of thing. Be sure to use the butter called for in the recipe, (don't substitute, if you want the superb, satin smoothness and luscious layer-it-on-thickly flavor which makes this so good.

CARAMEL ICING

Melt ½ cup butter slowly in a heavy saucepan. Add one cup brown sugar. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Cook two minutes. Add 6 tablespoons milk. Bring to boil again, then remove from the heat. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups powdered sugar, a little at a time. Beat until smooth and of spreading consistency, and spread on cake.

It is with many regrets that I leave you, but life and progress mean change, just as advancing knowledge of food trends and methods of preparation undergo constant revamping. In parting, allow me to leave you with these wishes: good health, good nutrition, good eating. And now, goodbye.

Mrs. Burstad read the invitation to the Oklee flower show, which will be held August 12. The fall workshop will be held at Roseau, September 12. Mrs. Adam Lendobeja expressed her thanks to those who worked in the garden club booth at the fair, and also to those who brought floral arrangements. Mrs. Harlan Knutson was a guest at the meeting. Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Sidney Wilson, at the close of the evening.

AUGUST 10 IS VISION DAY
FOR MINNESOTA'S PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN
- To help you determine if your pre-school child is "visually ready" for reading, members of the Minnesota Optometric Association are offering "Vision Screenings" to all Minnesota children who will enter school for the first time this year.
- These optometrists will conduct tests to determine if the child sees well at a distance as well as nearby objects. The tests will also show if the child coordinates both eyes and the general condition of the eyes will be examined. This is NOT a substitute for a complete visual examination, but parents and children will learn if vision care is necessary. Make an appointment for August 10 with an optometrist who is a member of the Minnesota Optometric Association.
These "Vision Screenings" are offered as a public service to the children of Minnesota by members of the

Side Line Observations

BY BILL DAHLQUIST

Congress has voted another campaign-year pay increase for public employees, to be effective August 1. Therefore the cost will not show up in the deficits of this fiscal year. As usual the big increases would go to those who already are receiving the highest pay. Congress didn't overlook this factor when they boosted their own pay increases a few months ago. There is no justification for mentioning the estimated total cost, which of course will be passed along to those who already are carrying the burden of increased taxes. We are having a lot of fun as we spend ourselves rich.

In considering our own incredible political folly it is interesting to note what our cousins in Europe are doing to strengthen their national economies and, incidentally, improve the economic status of their citizens, as individuals. B. H. Ridder, president of the organization that publishes the St. Paul papers, along with others, has spent much of his time in recent years in travelling abroad, and much of that time has been spent in Europe. He writes a daily column in the St. Paul Pioneer Press, in which he expresses his observations, and his observations are always interesting and informative.

I am happy to pass along a few of his recent observations on what the European nations have been doing to help themselves—generally the hard way. Here are a few of them:

"It becomes more apparent with each succeeding year of post-war travel in Europe, that the evidences of economic growth are steadily on the rise. It is a fantastic fact that, despite the population growth, percentage-wise higher than in the United States, the European economy is able to absorb the yearly additions to the labor market without increasing the per cent of unemployed.

"The main factor, I believe, is the readiness with which European governments use direct measures to stimulate economic growth. The governments are interested in business and in profits, not alone for their own tax benefits but mainly for the stimulation that profits produce and promote in further economic growth.

"In the United States we have been timid in such matters; our principal concern, governmental-wise, is to convert as much of the spendable income of the individual into expendable money for political reasons in Washington. The private profit dollar is converted to a political spending spree in all directions where votes can be attracted to the spending administration.

"The renaissance of western Europe, with which we unselfishly played the part of a starter in the Marshall plan, is the most brilliant example in all history of the triumph of the capitalistic system. In all fields of consumption, output, productivity, investment and employment it has set a new standard. It was done by governmental planning and the realization that capitalism requires new capital each year derived from its own savings to carry on. When taxes rob the system of the normal use of profits, it brings on all the difficulties that result from spend-thrift policies."

Mr. Ridder's report deserves thoughtful consideration, not only from the standpoint of the best interests of the nation but, mainly, from the standpoint of the best interests of the rank and file citizens of the nation whose rank and file interests as citizens are irrevocably bound by their ties to the national economy.

What most of us need in our approach to this over-all problem seems to be a better understanding of the over-all facts.

David Lawrence, in his syndicated column, states there is a possibility that some future supreme court might rule that the Constitutional provision giving each state two representatives in the United States Senate, regardless of the state's population, might interpret this to mean that each state must have at least two, but might have more, based on population. As the large cities gain more power, and eventual control of our government, anything can happen.

It is mainly in the large cities where we have boss-controlled political machines and corruption. Here in Minnesota, which is basically an agricultural state, both of our representatives in the Senate are from the Twin Cities, neither of them having an out-state background. In commenting on this situation, David Lawrence concludes:

"Members of Congress are beginning to hear from back home murmurs of real discontent over the recent decisions which dictate to the states how they shall apportion representation in both houses of their respective state legislatures.

"Apparently, people in the farm and rural sections are afraid that domination by the cities may prove injurious to their properties, and that legislation beneficial to them which has hitherto been passed by the states will be discarded if the state legislatures are entirely rebuilt with another system of representation. It is feared also that the country will be governed by the political machines of a few big cities. Sen. Dirksen, Republican leader, has already said publicly that a constitutional amendment may be necessary to clarify the limits of the ruling."

Better Health Through Knowledge

POISON IVY

Q. Is there a sure way of recognizing the poison ivy plant?

A. Poison ivy leaves are of various sizes, shapes and colors, depending on the season of the year, but they always grow in threes. A few other plants, such as the strawberry and raspberry, grow leaves in threes but it is usually not too difficult to differentiate them from ivy.

Q. Can you get poison ivy by just going near an ivy plant?

A. With one exception, actual contact with the plant is necessary. The exception is smoke given off by burning ivy. Such smoke may contain enough ivy "poison" to cause trouble. In this case actual contact with the plant is not necessary.

Q. Is it true that some people are not affected by poison ivy?

A. Yes, at least for a time. One person may have a severe case of poison ivy after only the slightest contact with the plant. Another may work around poison ivy and even handle it for years without ill effect. But sooner or later, those who seem immune or resistant usually become susceptible.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

I would like to suggest to all who wish to participate in our American method of government, especially to our young people, that you develop as quickly as you can a deep and extremely large amount of faith in our Democratic system. I am sure that in time your faith will be rewarded and that our Democratic system is the best in the world.

I am refering to the article reprinted from the Red Lake Falls Gazette over the name of Frederick Fosse, criticizing loans made to Mr. Wichterman. I have always been taught that it was an illegal act against our American society, as well as a great moral wrong, to spread malicious gossip. I always have been told that the greenest cub reporter knew enough to at least attempt to check the validity of a story that might cause unfair public opinion, especially if those who prepared the story were recognized from past participation in smear tactics.

I greatly admire Mr. Wichterman's courage and character for being able to take this kind of treatment. Our late President Kennedy was subjected to the same kind of attack—with what reward—the privilege of being shot through the head and dying in the lap of his wife because he offered himself for public service.

I hope that those who are part of this smear campaign feel proud. To spread hate and lie lies, does not fit with my idea of a social discipline needed to live in a democracy of honor and honesty. We will build and keep our faith, and we shall have our turn, in the American way, at the polls this fall.

Fertile Erases TRF Juniors in Tourney

Fertile's Rod Olson and the locals' Tony Poole hooked up in a righthanded pitching duel in a first round American Legion Ninth District junior baseball tournament game at Detroit Lakes on Friday evening, and the veteran Fertile hurler gained a 3 to 1 win over Poole and the local club. The defeat eliminated coach Ralph Skay's Thief River Falls juniors, the winners of the sub-district tourney, from further competition in the District tourney.

In other district first-round games played on Friday, coach Jerry Snyder's Middle River club defeated Bagley, 8 to 3; coach Jerry Riewer's Deer Creek team, scoring a pair of runs in the first inning defeated Barnesville, 2 to 0; and coach Ken Grabinski's Detroit Lakes squad defeated the Fergus Falls juniors.

In semi-finals play on Saturday evening, Deer Creek, by a 7 to 0 score, defeated Middle River; and Detroit Lakes, by an identical 7 to 0 score, defeated Fertile.

The Thief River Falls vs. Fertile game proved to be the best of the first-round four-game Friday schedule, with the two hurlers, Olson of Fertile and Poole of Thief River Falls, hurling three-hit ball.

Coach Skay's club made a scoring threat in the second inning when, with one out, Mike Benke and Jerry Erickson drove out singles. But with runners on second and third, Fertile's Olson struck out Rick Jensen and Buzz Olson.

In the fifth inning the locals broke into the scoring column. Jensen, on a bunt attempt, looped a hit over the pitcher and beat out the play to first base. Buzz Olson, attempting to sacrifice, popped a fly to the first baseman and when the ball was bobbled, Jensen gained second base and Olson had a life at first. Paul Klungness sent a fly all to center field, with Jensen advancing to third after the catch. John Aune's fly ball to right field scored Jensen with the locals' run and gave coach Skay's team a 1 to 0 lead.

Fertile, in the top of the sixth, rallied for three runs to gain the win. Harold Gast opened with a single, but he was erased on a stealing attempt, Aune to Buzz Olson. Tony Poole walked Jon Lindberg and Rod Olson. Don Erickson sliced a single into right field, scoring Lindberg, and when the ball eluded the rightfielder, Olson came around with a score, and Erickson advanced to second base. Les Wiken grounded out, second to first, but a pair of errors, on ground balls hit by Rich Gilbertson and Greg Holmvik, permitted Don Erickson to tally Fertile's third run of the inning.

The locals were set down in order in the sixth and seventh innings.

Fish Kill from Heat Expected In State's Lakes

Decaying Vegetation Uses Oxygen in Water; Shallow Lakes Have Big Problem

An unusual number of dead fish is apt to be seen along the shores of Minnesota lakes these days, according to the Minnesota Conservation department. Reason is the prolonged period of above normal temperatures which has plagued the state this summer.

Hjalmar Swenson, state fisheries supervisor, explained that long periods of hot weather raise the temperature of the water above the point tolerated by fish. The problem is likely to be more severe in shallow lakes or in shallow bays where the fish are unable to go deeper into cool water.

Lack of adequate rainfall in some areas has resulted in low water levels which has added to the problem this year, Swenson said.

High water temperatures also increase the decomposition rate of decaying vegetation in the lakes. This process consumes oxygen from the water making less available to aquatic life, thus compounding problems for fish.

Swenson said there is nothing that can be done to alleviate the problem and that the advent of cooler weather would put an end to the situation. To date, he said, there is no indication that the fish kill is severe or likely to exceed that of several previous years.

Prior to Wednesday evening's play, the Bjorkman's had trailed the league-leading Land O'Lakes by two strokes, but following Wednesday evening's sub-par score, the Bjorkman's earned first place and hold a six-stroke lead over the runner-up Land O'Lakes.

In Wednesday evening's play, Ron Kvikstad, who shoots from scratch, had a one-over-par 37, Jim Wilson had a gross 47 and net 37, Erling Olson had a gross 37 and net 29, and Al Adams had a gross 41 and a net 32. TRF Girl Saved From Drowning at Old Mill Park

Quick action by John Berget of Warren, a lifeguard at Old Mill state park, prevented a drowning at the pool at about 5:45 p.m. July 26. The girl saved was reported to be the 4½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haugen of Thief River Falls.

The girl had apparently wandered away from her parents and strayed into deep water. Berget pulled her out and administered mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration.

Auke Van Holst, water safety instructor at the University of North Dakota, who was camping at the park, offered his help while Berget called Dr. E. E. Pumala of Warren and also ran to get a resuscitator. The girl was breathing normally when he returned, however.

Berget should be commended for his quick action on duty, said Ernie Jewell, park superintendent, who added that parents should keep a watch on their children at all times while they are in the water.

CORRECTION

Erroneous information provided to the Times last week resulted in the listing of Charlene Myers of Silverton as reserve champion exhibitor in beef heifer and showmanship classes at the Pennington county fair. Reserve champion in both classes was Donald Dean Knutson, Smiley 4-H club.

VICTORY at Assiniboia Downs at Winnipeg was registered by Little Tea Aera, the horse pictured above and owned by A. F. Holzknecht of Thief River Falls. In the fourth race last Wednesday, Little Tea Aera covered the six furlongs in 1:13 to win by two lengths over Earl Caustin Jr. and Doctor Jewell and earn the $1,000 purse. Roger Jensen was the jockey with C. D. Irion as trainer. Holzknecht is shown at left in the above photo.

PYRAMID builders were these members of the Thief River Falls Boat club which presented an all-local water ski show Sunday afternoon at Tindolph Park. Heavy current in the Thief river, following a deluge of rain north of the city on Saturday evening, forced the show to be held on the Red Lake river east of the park. Forming the base of this five-man pyramid, left to right, were Larry Olson, Steve Mittelstadt, and Steve Taxerans. Riding on their shoulders were Judy Lee and Kathy Solsten.

Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson

A Night for Arlo

The baseball fans of the Fertile community are to honor their favorite baseball "son", Arlo Brunsberg, on Tuesday night at the Grand Forks Municipal Park. The Duluth-Superior Dukes, of which Arlo is a member, will be playing the Grand Forks Dodgers in a Northern league game that night. And Arlo will, in all probability, be doing the catching and batting in third place in the order, forth the Dukes.

And speaking of Arlo and his progress in professional aseball, it appears that he will be making a real effort to make the majors. This past week the Edina high school officials had tendered a bid to Arlo, asking if the popular Fertile athlete and Concordia college graduate would be interested in joining the Edina school system as a teacher and coach. A bid from one of the suburban high schools is considered a "plum", and Arlo was given a week or so in which to make his decision. He consulted with the officials of the Detroit Tigers baseball organization (Arlo is under contract to the Tigers), and they advised Brunsberg to continue in professional baseball. If this advice was given in good faith, and there is no reason to think otherwise, Arlo must be considered a major league prospect.

And, continuing in major league baseball, it is rumored that Clearbrook's Wes Westrum is being groomed to succeed Casey Stengel as manager of the New York Mets. Wes, who was a star catcher for the New York Giants during the Leo Durocher era, is a coach with the Mets this season. He was with the San Francisco Giants for a number of years.

And the talk around Parkins' coffee bar is that Billy Martin will succeed Sam Mele as manager of the Minnesota Twins. A change in managers would perhaps be a stimulant for the Twins, but the club has too many weaknesses to be a title contender, and the exchange of Bill for Sam would just be a publicity maneuver. But the fans will continue to be interested in the progress of the Twins, and especially the bid that Tony Oliva is making to win the American League batting title, and the home run efforts of Harmon Killebrew.

The Softball Playoffs

Arrangements and pairings for the city softball playoffs were completed at a meeting of the team captains and managers held on Friday. This evening, Monday, at the Fairgrounds diamond, the Hartz Stores and the Bridgeman's will meet in a game to determine third place in the league standings. The two teams concluded their league play with seven wins and five losses apiece. And following the Hartz vs. Bridgeman's tilt, the Rasmussen Insurance and the Thorp Loan will play, with the loser of this game being eliminated from the softball playoffs.

Six teams will then enter a double-elimination series, with the first-round pairings pitting the number one team, Bea's Food Market, against the fourth place team; the second place team, the Vets, against the fifth place Hamm's Beer; and the third place team meeting the winner of the Rasmussen Insurance vs. Thorp Loan game.

This double-elimination series is slated to start on Tuesday evening unless the third and fourth place teams, Hartz or Bridgeman's, desire an open date following their Monday evening playoff game. In this case the series will begin on Wednesday evening.

They Earned the Title

There were no alibis offered by the Vets following their 4 to 1 loss to the Bea's Food Market team in the city softball league championship playoff game on Thursday evening at the Fair Grounds. The Bea's, who held the league lead for most of the season (the Vets tied for the league title in the final week of play) are well-deserving of the league championship that they won.

And so it's congratulations to manager Wayne Bjerken, Wiley Bogle, Ken Noreen, Chuck Dicken, Marc Selness, Dean Hams, Bobby Benson, Larry Poole, Dave Ellingson, Bobby Nelson and Dick Bjerken. The Bea's finished the season with a record of eleven wins and two losses, and that's remarkale for a club that was just organized this year.

Of course much of the success of the Bea's must be credited to the pitching of Wiley Bogle the hurled five shutouts during the 13-game schedule), but he was given adequate support in the field and at the plate by his youthful teammates.

And now it is on into the city softball playoffs, and this could prove troublesome for the league champions.

In a league championship playoff game played on Thursday evening the Bea's Food Market, by a 4 to 1 score, defeated the V. F. W. and won the city softball league title for 1964. At the conclusion of the season's schedule the two teams were deadlocked for first place, having 10 wins and two losses apiece.

The city softball playoffs, with all of the league teams participating, will begin this evening, Monday, on the Fairgrounds diamond. During the first-round of play four teams will be eliminated from the playoffs and, starting on August 10, the remaining teams will engage in a double-elimination series for the city playoff title.

Thursday evening's league championship game was a no-hit and no-run and no-runner on base for three innings, but in the fourth inning the Bea's got to the Vets' Wally Grovum for three hits and a run. With one out, Dean Hams sent a ground single past third base, and Wiley Bogle beat out an infield hit to shortstop. Marc Selness singled to left field, scoring Hams. Ken Noreen flied out, and Bob Benson struck out to end the rally.

In the fifth the Vets moved a runner around to third base with none out, with Frank Harger singling to left and advancing to third on a wild throw. Bogle retired Monro Poole on a tap to the mound, struck out Roy Pederson, and Don Engelstad was out on a pop foul to catcher Noreen.

A walk to Larry Poole, Hams' blooping double, a walk to Bogle, and Noreen's ground single accounted for three Bea's runs in the sixth inning, and a 4 to 0 lead. The Vets made a strong bid to get back into the game in their half of the sixth when Vern Solheim and Grovum led off with singles. Harlie Drees scored Solheim by lofting a sacrifice fly to left field. Les Olson was out on a foul pop to third baseman Dave Ellingson, and Joey Poole grounded out to first baseman Bob Benson.

In the seventh, with two men out Roy Pederson lined a single to center, but Engelstad's pop fly to shortstop Larry Poole ended the game.

Sheriff's Association Scores State Police

Minnesota State Sheriff's association's board of directors in meeting at Duluth on July 21, issued the following statement:

"Sheriffs of the state are highly concerned about a report made by a representative of the National Safety council at a recent traffic safety meeting held in St. Paul. Of chief concern to the sheriffs were statements made in the report about the recommendation for an additional 183 highway patrolmen without reference to areas of specific needs and the implication of expanding the state police powers of the highway patrol beyond the state highway trunk system into and on the county and township roads. In keeping with the principle of local county control, the board of directors of the Minnesota State Sheriff's association made the following observations:

"Local county government is functioning well and is continuing to make improvements to serve the people; the sheriff and his staff are on call 24 hours a day every day, and are intimately familiar with their county problems including traffic control; the county sheriff and his staff can give better traffic law enforcement in the county than the highway patrol and at a fraction of the cost to the taxpayer; and the sheriffs of Minnesota are opposed to a centralized state police authority.

"The 87 modern Sheriffs offices of the state with trained personnel are dedicated to the best form of local law enforcement including traffic control on all public roads within their respective counties."

SBA Observed 11th Anniversary

3,057 Business Loans Made in Region To Date

July 30 marked the 11th anniversary of the signing of legislation creating the Small Business administration, according to Harry A. Sieben, Minneapolis regional director.

By SBA standards, about 95 per cent of all businesses in this country are small businesses that are producing approximately 40 per cent of the nation's total business volume and employ about 40 per cent of our entire working force.

The legislation creating S.B.A. authorized the agency to make long term loans to small firms; to provide them with management and technical assistance; to help small firms obtain a fair share of government contracts; to make loans to local development companies and to license small business investment companies.

Sieben stated that as of June 30, 1964, 3,057 business loans amounting to $120,683,362 had been approved by SBA to small firms in this region consisting of Minnesota, North and South Dakota and northwestern Wisconsin. In addition, 84 local development company loans totaling $7,656,785 have been approved since 1958 when this program was first established. Sieben indicated that more development company loans have been made in Minnesota than in any other state.

VA Employs Many Disabled People

Survey Shows 8 Per Cent Of 170,000 Handicapped

Veterans Administration not only prepares disabled veterans for return to jobs, it also has one of the highest percentages of physically handicapped employees of all governmental agencies.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs John S. Gleason Jr., in a recent report to the President's Committee on Employment on the Handicapped, revealed that more than eight per cent of the VA's 170,000 employees have some kind of disability.

Among the VA's employees are 4,251 with impaired body function, largely bone deformities; 2,286 with inactive pulmonary tuberculosis; 1,478 with organic heart diseases; and 1,322 with impaired vision, including some who are blind. Thousands of others are amputees, suffer loss of hearing, and other disabilities.

As to how these employees have performed, the report notes that 1,413 earned grade promotions during 1963; 59 received pay increases for sustained quality work; 606 received outstanding and superior performance certificates and 332 others received miscellaneous commendations.

Roseau County Fair Has Profit

Attendance Down From '63, Midway Sets Record

Roseau county fair came out money ahead, despite an overall drop in attendance due to rain. The biggest factors in the total figure were the midway gross and a sizeable crowd at a grandstand performance.

Attendance at this year's fair was 15,500 down from the 16,500 last year and the 16,000 of the year before. Midway gross was a record $9,614.90, up from the previous high of $9,402.90 last year and the total of $8,606.50 in 1962. The fair board retains a portion of the midway gross, which helped keep operations on the profit side.

This year's fair had a total of 4,483 exhibits, compared to 4,714 last year and 4,605 in 1962. Premium money paid out was $4,341.75 compared to $4,551 last year and $4,059.59 in 1962.

Local Bankers On Public Relations State Committee

Three local bankers—J. J. Womack, president, Union State bank; George A. Bello Jr. vice president, Northern State bank; and N. H. Kortuem, assistant cashier, Union State bank—have been appointed to the Minnesota bankers association public relations committee for 1964-65 by MBA president Glenn A. Uggen, president of the Peoples state bank, Wells.

Members of 12 working committees have been appointed by President Uggen to plan and carry out projects and activities of the Bankers association during the coming year.

"Our accomplishments during 1964-65 will depend to a large extent on the work done by members of our MBA committees," he said, "and our committee members will be extremely important in carrying out the many projects of the Minnesota Bankers association in the coming months."

F. Borgen Takes Naval Training

Floyd E. Borgen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Borgen Sr., Thief River Falls, has reported to recruit training at the Naval Training center, San Diego, Calif.

He is learning basic military law, customs and etiquette, seamanship and a basic knowledge of shipboard routine. Also included in the training is extensive military drill, first aid, swimming, water survival tactics and physical fitness.

Upon completion, he will be granted a 14-day leave before reporting to his new duty station or to a service school.

Grygla 4-H Club Meets Recently

July 14 meeting of the Grygla Go-Getters 4-H club was called to order by Linda Holte, president. The flag salute and 4-H pledge were given. The club decided to have a picnic at Red Lake in place of its August meeting.

For the program, Boylen Haggen gave a demonstration on how to make an extension cord, Jerilene Holte sang "Go Tell It on the Mountain" and Paula and Paulette Thompson, Lois Paulson and Patricia Vigen sang "Little Dutch Girl."

Recreation consisted of a songfest led by Yvonne Brateng and accompanied by Jerilene Holte. Lunch was served by Mrs. Otto Holte, Mrs. Luther Anderson and Mrs. Allard Morlen.

Dike Roads at Roseau Refuge Open To Travel

Dike roads at the Roseau River Refuge will be open to the public for the next three weeks, according to Jack Jensen, refuge manager. Driving slowly along the roads should provide excellent opportunities for persons interested in seeing and photographing wildlife, including ducks, geese, deer and moose as well as other birds and animals, Jensen said.

Speed limit on the roads is 20 miles per hour, but Jensen suggests that motorists drive more slowly in order to see game and avoid killing little ducks which sometimes run across the road. Early evening is the best time to see game, he emphasized.

Motorists are reminded that they drive at their own risk on the roads, which are primarily maintenance roads.

In recognition of his achievement, Bennes will receive a personal memento from the company president.

Editorials . . .

"I served with General Washington in the Legislature of Virginia, before the Revolution, and, during it, with Doctor Franklin in Congress. I never heard either of them speak ten minutes at a time, nor to any but the main point, which was to decide the question.

"They laid their shoulders to the great points, knowing that the little ones would follow of themselves. If the present Congress errs in too much talking, how can it be otherwise, in a body to which the people send one hundred and fifty lawyers, whose trade it is to question everything, yield nothing, and talk by the hour? That one hundred and fifty lawyers should do business together ought not to be expected."

—Thomas Jefferson

The Wichterman Debt

In our Wednesday edition we published a story from the Red Lake Falls Gazette, carrying the comments of Frederick Fosse in regard to the debt of $88,000 owed by Ben Wichterman of Plummer to "agencies that were originally government sponsored." Wichterman, a former state representative, is seeking the Seventh District post of U. S. Congressman now held by Odin Langen.

We received a copy of the letter from Fosse a short time ago, but accorded it only passing interest since the figures quoted were not substantiated. Other papers in the area have used the story, and a check with the Gazette editor indicated that the figures, taken from records at the Red Lake county courthouse, were correct.

Personally, we believe a man's personal debt is his own business. He has incurred the obligation and it is his problem to make payments as they come due. Our nation is built on credit, and the amount a man owes makes no difference if he has the ability to re-pay. This ability must be determined by both the borrower and the lender before the loan is made.

The amount of debt, or the mere fact of debt, has no real bearing in this case. The underlying implication, not clearly spelled out in the Fosse letter, is that Wichterman used political pressure to secure loans which would not ordinarily have been made to other persons in the same circumstances. Such a charge, of course, would be treading on dangerous ground, for there are many factors considered in making loans which are not shown on the records.

In attempting to imply that favoritism was a factor in the loans, Fosse has involved the local committees which must approve FHA and PCA loans. In defense of these men, it must be said that Fosse's letter was not able to show that they acted beyond what might be considered reasonable bounds. If the loans are secured by adequate security, and it is the duty of these boards to see that such security exists, then the boards acted within their jurisdiction and should not be criticized for their actions in granting the loans.

Then the question arises as to who should benefit by such reflections on the character of a political candidate. Who would benefit more than his closest opponent? And his closest opponent is not congressman Langen, for the primary is yet to be held. In the primary election Wichterman will face William Kjeldahl, a veteran of political warfare and a former aide to Congresswoman Coya Knutson.

It doesn't seem entirely by chance that the data from the Red Lake county register of deeds office, indicating the Wichterman debt, was obtained by Al Gerner of Blackduck, a supporter of the Kjeldahl candidacy. It would seem to be part of a minority revolt against the DFL party machine. In general we think it is poor taste in campaign practice.

Candid Comment

Part of one of our editorials concerning the Goldwater candidacy for President was recently quoted in the Fargo Forum newspaper. Several days ago we received a letter from a Fargo man, commenting on the editorial and his own opinion. We believe his thoughts are worth passing along to our readers:

"I hope I am not a radical but I am one of the several million people of this country who believe it is time we get back to the road that leads ahead—to living within our income, individual, city, state and national.

"(We must return to the idea)....that private morality follows public morality and that character when one borrows money consists in knowing where one is going to get the money to pay his loan when he makes it and having the willingness to pay when it is due....that you cannot make money by passing laws in Congress but have to dig it out of the ground....that you cannot force a man to love his neighbor with a bayonet.... that the pockets of poverty are in a man's head, not his pants, and you cannot cure 'em with a soup kitchen.

"I believe that the American people have the industry to make the money and the honesty to pay the monstrous debt the pump-priming politicians have foisted upon us. We have had nigh onto 35 years of paternalism and we are farther in debt than we were when we started, have a smaller gold reserve, and less national respect than we have had since World War I. It is time for a change. Time to get back to the road that leads ahead. To me that means Goldwater!"

A Worthy Project

We would like to commend the Thief River Falls city council for action taken in providing new trash containers for the downtown area. They are not only a needed addition but are practical and attractive as well.

It now remains to persuade the public that the containers should be used for candy wrappers, empty cigarette packages and other waste paper and debris. With 20 of the convenient containers now located in the downtown area, a person need only walk to the corner of the block to deposit refuse.

We trust that the council, in placing the containers, will not forget about them when they are filled. A removable top and inside cannister which can be lifted out and emptied make the trash containers easy to service. We would hate to see them lose their utility simply because they became filled.

What About a Pool

Talk of a community swimming pool has been quite sparse lately, and we wonder just what is being done about the proposal. Last year about this time the talk of a swimming pool was flying hot and heavy, with the discussion touched off by the drowning of a young girl in the Tindolph park river pool.

We are inclined to think the community would favor construction of a municipal pool if the size was adequate and the cost within reason. So far we have heard no size or cost estimates for a municipal pool, nor have we heard of an organized campaign for a pool.

We do know that the community attitude survey conducted by the Thief River Falls Jaycees indicated a high amount of interest in the pool, and a surprising amount of support for financing through a bond issue and/or mill levy to pay for it. This personal interest by the community's citizens indicates that the subject merits more than passing consideration.

Until a proposal is presented, with statistics on size, cost and finance, there is not a great deal to discuss regarding the pool except need....and opinion on need ranges all the way from "ridiculous" to "essential". We are inclined to think a pool with clear water, perimeter supervision and no current would attract more swimmers than the present river pool. And we bet that cases of eye, ear, nose and throat infection among swimmers would show an appreciable drop if river swimming was no longer necessary.

It would be interesting to see what the public reaction would be to a plan for a pool and a method of finance through the city. If plans are being made by interested citizens in this direction, it would be well to have the project planned and referendum conducted before the swimming season ends.

Making It Clear

Discussion of the socialistic movement in the nation is provided by the Harlingen, Texas, "Star", in a recent editorial. The candid description offered by the "Star" is as follows:

"We hope we can make it clear. The great problem of our time centers around private property and the inroads being made against it by government. Ever since the socialist movement began, economic theorists have toyed with the idea that the world would be a better place if people didn't own property privately. Essentially, this is all that Karl Marx was interested in promoting when he launched the communist movement....In a free society, both welfare and protection, as services, can thrive and, indeed, will for both of these things are humanly necessary. But to establish a system wherein everyone in society can be systematically looted in order to provide services some may not want, is to descend into socialism."
